Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	All employees of The Cheshire Health Foundation, including officers, are paid by a related organization, The Cheshire Medical Center. Additionally, some non-officer Trustees of the Foundation were compensated by Dartmouth-Hitchcock Health, also a related organization. Cheshire Medical Center/Dartmouth Hitchcock Keene has retained Yaffe & Company, Inc. to provide consultation to the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees regarding executive compensation, benefits, and perquisites. Yaffe & Company, Inc. is an independent consulting firm with 35 years of service and provides services to not-for-profit hospitals and health systems. Further, Yaffe & Company, Inc. has been engaged directly by the Board of Trustees of Cheshire Medical Center through its Executive Committee to only provide services to the Board. An Executive Committee d/b/a Compensation Committee Charter and Compensation Philosophy (approved by the Board) documents the compensation review process and guidelines so as to provide an orderly structure for executive total compensation decisions. Annually, a multi-tiered approach using independent comparability data is utilized to gauge appropriate comparative market levels of compensation and benefits. An annual performance evaluation is based on subjective and objective criteria which flow from the strategic plan. By way of questionnaire, Board members participate in the performance review process and a summary report is shared with the CEO. Variable pay is awarded based on achievement of specific qualitative and quantitative goals. In conjunction with the Executive Committee, challenging and measurable goals are established for the Office of the President which provides an alignment between executive compensation and achievement of the Hospital's strategic goals.
