Part III, Line 1a	The Organization collects prints, sculptures, and other works of art. The Organization's collections are maintained for public exhibition and education in furtherance of the Organization's mission rather than for financial gain. Collections are valuable assets of the Organization and are protected, kept unencumbered, cared for, and preserved. As a matter of policy, the proceeds of items in collections that are sold are used to acquire other items for collections. The Organization's collections, acquired through purchase and contributions, are not recognized as assets on the statements of financial position. Purchases of collection items are recorded in the year in which the items were acquired as decreases in unrestricted net assets, or as decreases in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets if the assets used to purchase the items are restricted by donors. Contributed collection items are not reflected in the financial statements. Proceeds from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net asset classes.
Part V, Line 4	Income generated from endowed funds are available to support various activities of the Guild. Activities include scholarships, annual awards for sculpture and special programs for exhibitions and education.
Part X, Line 2	The Organization evaluates all significant tax provisions as required by accounting practices generally accepted in the United States of America. As of June 30, 2015, the Organization does not believe that it has taken any positions that would require recording of any additional tax liability nor does it believe that there are any unrealized tax benefits that would either increase or decrease within the next year. The Organization is no longer subject to audits by the applicable taxing authorities for the periods prior to 2012.
