1

Briefly describe the organization’s mission

The NRDC Action Fund's mission is to build political support in the United States for protecting the planet and its people. We mobilize influential constituencies, experts, community leaders and others to directly advocate for clean air and water, public health, biodiversity, and a stable climate. We support candidates who stand up for environmental protection, and we expose those who side with polluters rather than the public good.

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

1. Advocating for the Environment: NRDC Action Fund's primary goal is to persuade elected officials to preserve the environment and protect public health. We identify policies that will achieve those goals, and we educate and inform lawmakers about how the policies work. The NRDC Action Fund works with coalition partners to provide elected officials with the analysis they need to support effective environmental policies. Advocacy Network: One of the key advocacy tools used by the NRDC Action Fund is its extensive network of policy experts, business leaders, and other influential people who have credibility and relationships with policy makers. Fighting Congressional Attacks on the Environment: In FY15, anti-environmental forces in Congress tried to weaken numerous environmental protections. The NRDC Action Fund joined the fight against these environmental rollbacks through raising public awareness and utilizing our network to advocate that lawmakers not support these attempts. Clean Air Defense: The NRDC Action Fund was a partner in the successful environmental and health coalition efforts to reduce air pollution and support administration action against climate change. California Proposition 1 Ballot Initiative: The NRDC Action Fund advocated for the ultimately successful California Water Bond, Prop 1, which was approved on Election Day in 2014. 2. Educating the Public and Holding Elected Officials Accountable: WhoVotesDirty: One of the NRDC Action Fund's top priorities is to educate the American people about how their elected officials vote on environmental and energy issues. Using both traditional media and advanced digital techniques, the NRDC Action Fund makes sure the public knows where their elected officials stand on the issues. The NRDC Action Fund's WhoVotesDirty.com website uses sophisticated analysis and the latest voting data to connect the dots between votes on environmental and energy issues and campaign contributions from fossil fuel companies and to make it easy for the public to track elected officials' votes. Other Accountability Communications: The NRDC Action Fund uses online advertising, TV ad buys, blogging, and social media campaigns to draw awareness to elected officials who are out of step with the public on protecting the environment. 3. Supporting Environmental Champions: In order to confront the crisis of climate change, America needs more elected officials committed to passing forward-looking clean energy and climate legislation. The NRDC Action Fund helps elect those champions to office and support them when it comes time to vote for the environment. We help candidates speak persuasively on our issues, and we demonstrate that running for office on clean energy and climate action will help them win. Polling: In 2014, the NRDC Action Fund released battleground polling from nine states showing voters' attitudes on climate change and the EPA's Clean Power Plan. This data showed that 2016 voters would support action on climate, the EPA, and renewable energy. The findings garnered national and state press coverage. Running Clean: In March 2015, the NRDC Action Fund released "Running Clean: Good Policy, Good Politics," a project released after each election cycle to show how environmental champions ran and won on environmental issues.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Schedule D, Part XI and XII	NRDC ACTION FUND does not receive standalone financial statements, its operations are consolidated for financial reporting purposes with an affiliated organization, the Natural Resources Defense Council, Inc. The Parts XI, XII and XIII reconciliation on Schedule D tie back to NRDC ACTION FUND's financial information within the audited financial statements and not to the consolidated numbers. Form 990, Schedule D, Part X, Line 2. The FASB Accounting Codification (ASC) established criterion that an individual tax position must meet for some or all of the benefits of that position to be recognized in an entity's financial statements. This standard requires that a tax position be recognized or derecognized based on a "more likely than not" threshold. NRDC has processes currently in place to ensure the maintenance of its tax-exempt status, to identify and report unrelated income, determine its filing and tax obligations in jurisdictions for which it has nexus, and to review other matters that may be considered a tax position. The tax years ending 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015 remain open to audit for both federal and state purposes. This standard had no impact on NRDC's 2014 and 2015 consolidated financial statements. NRDC does not believe its 2014 and 2015 consolidated financial statements include any uncertain tax positions.
