Part IV

Supporting Organizations (continued)

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

	Form 990, Part III, Line 4a COMMUNITY BENEFIT REPORT - PART II	Some of the services listed above operate at a loss in order to ensure that all services are available to meet community health care needs. Expanding Awareness, Education and Health Promotion. St. John Hospital & Medical Center believes that it is essential to educate people regarding the types of behavior that improve their chances of living a healthy life and has invested significantly in unique, top quality health education and materials to accomplish its goals. Various classes provided to the community are as follows - Labyrinth walk - Open arms grief counseling - Prenatal and breastfeeding classes - Bereavement support group - Oncology bereavement support - Non-oncology bereavement support - Breast cancer support group - Individual counseling for cancer patients - Pediatric cancer parent support group - Cardiac rehabilitation program - Carelink education classes for senior adults - Clinical trials - Diabetes education program - Injury prevention classes to numerous schools and community groups - Free pediatric obesity program - Screenings for oral cancer - Hip and knee pain seminar - Hypnotherapy for smoking cessation - Lap band support group - Transplant support group. Education material also is provided via our website at www.stjohnprovidence.org. Access To Care Programs. St. John Hospital & Medical Center operates many public health clinics. Public clinics range from specialty clinics such as pediatrics to general internal medicine clinics. Our public health clinics provide care for all community residents, regardless of their ability to pay. Services include the full range of preventive and primary health and dental care for adults and children, prenatal care, AIDS/HIV education and management of chronic diseases such as asthma, diabetes and heart disease. St. John Hospital provides clothing and food pantries both in the Van Elslander Cancer Center and various units within the hospital. Our associates have had departmental bake sales and other benefits for individual patients in need. Educating the younger generation is a hallmark of St. John Hospital & Medical Center. To give underserved children an opportunity to learn a healthcare career, our human resources department participates with local Detroit school Del Cristo Rey to provide employment to students as part of their normal school week. Our emergency department hosts students in the emergency center for several hours of learning and instructional hands-on education. Our physicians and leaders participate regularly in career days for local schools in which they have partnerships. Our medical education department organizes physician speakers for the Grosse Pointe schools advanced medicine classes. Community Outreach Service. St. John Hospital & Medical Center provides charitable contributions to a number of community organizations. St. John Hospital & Medical Center has contributed funds for sponsorship in the community by volunteering and giving support to community organizations, parades, neighborhood advocacy and clean-up groups, community orchestras, health walks and marathons, health expos and health fairs, American Red Cross blood drives, churches, schools, career fairs at schools, police office benefits and community foundation outings. St. John Hospital & Medical Center is an active supporting member in community events and partners with many organizations to improve community health, such as American Red Cross, American Heart Association, Multiple Sclerosis Society, Eagle Sports, Soar tutoring program, American Cancer Society. Community service is an important part of our existence. To that end, St. John Hospital & Medical Center provides a Christmas store each year for up to 600 children, giving each child a toy, outfit and gift bag for the family that includes a $50 food gift certificate. The mission spirituality team at the hospital also supports the Salem Memorial Lutheran church food pantry with weekly donations and counseling from our spiritual care team for those attending. Charity Care. St. John Hospital & Medical Center offers a wide variety of health and wellness programs that meet diverse needs, regardless of economic status and physical condition. The uninsured are more likely to seek care in hospital emergency rooms. St. John Hospital & Medical Center had 128,295 emergency department visits in fiscal 2015. Increasingly, patients are experiencing limited abilities to pay for health care services or qualify for state and federally funded programs like Medicaid that cover only a portion of the cost of services provided. St. John Hospital & Medical Center offers various free clinics. For many Michigan residents, finding someone to care for them when they are sick is not as easy as making an appointment. Lack of health insurance, transportation issues and language barriers combine to create challenges. St. John Hospital & Medical Center provides a substantial portion of its services to the elderly and poor. During the fiscal year

Return Reference	Explanation
