990-EZ Part 1 #10 - $30,260 was paid out in grants to Kent Intermediate School District (2930 Knapp Street, Ne, Grand Rapids, MI 49525).

Of that $30,260, $15,500 was for the Bright Beginnings Program to purchase hours for Parent Educators to serve high-risk families via home visits while an additional $10,000 paid for vision and hearing equipment to ensure Kent County infants and young children are screened for any potential disabilities or developmental delays early on. The remaining $4,760 covered student summer employment along with clothing for homeless students and student clothing needed for employment. $6,183 was paid in scholarships for five Board Members from local Kent County school districts to attend the National School Board Association Advocacy Institute in Washington, D.C. The remaining $4,840 were grant fund expenditures under $5,000.

Part 1 #16 - Other expenses totaled $29,924. The majority of these expenses were for meeting expenses, including room rentals, meals, lodging for retreats, entrance fees, parking, etc. This includes meetings for the Kent Intermediate Superintendents' Association, Kent Intermediate Association of School Boards, Kent Learning Collaborative, and students involved in the Work Force Investment Act. Supplies for a "Laugh and Learn" event for Kent County children ages 0-5 and production supplies for a project-based learning activity for high school students to produce documentaries of World War II veterans in the Grand Rapids area were also included. There was also a $20 expense for the Nonprofit Corporation Filing Fee and $95 annual fee for the Kent Education Foundation Credit Card.

Part 3 #31 - The "other program services" included $5,250 to provide support to students who come from families that are struggling financially which indicates they are "at risk" for successfully completing high school. The goal is to lead these students to graduation, post-secondary training and ultimately, meaningful employment. $3,264 was spent on meetings and supplies for Kent Learning Collaborative which is a group of administrators working collaboratively to keep curriculum in school districts updated for approximately 130,000 children in Kent County. An additional $3,052 was used to promote student leadership to ensure that students of all faith traditions feel safe and respected in their schools. $3,333 was used to support the production of documentaries of World War II veterans in the Grand Rapids area. This project-based learning activity taught students core content from their Global Studies class in a hands-on way that engages them with the community. $1,000 helped purchase clothing for area homeless students as well as work-based specialty clothing for students in need such as steel-toed boots or a specific color of pants or scrubs. There was also $1,000 used during the holiday season to help families in need with an additional $1,000 that was collected to assist a family with funeral expenses.
