Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Agency's federal exempt returns for 2012-2014 are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they were filed. The Agency's state informational returns for 2011-2014 are subject to examination up to four years after they were filed. The statute of limitations does not apply to unfiled returns. The Agency believes that all required returns have been filed. The Agency's policy is to classify income tax related interest and penalties, if incurred, in interest expense and miscellaneous expense, respectively. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require that a liability be recorded for uncertain tax positions taken, if it is determined that the tax positions taken would more-likely-than-not be denied upon examination by taxing authorities. Management of the Agency has analyzed the tax positions taken in its filings with the Federal Government and State of New Jersey, and concluded that no tax positions have been taken that would not be sustained upon examination. Accordingly, the Agency has not recorded any reserves, or related accruals for interest and penalties for uncertain tax positions at June 30, 2015 and 2014.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission
Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission	The New Jersey Prevention Network is a public health agency working to prevent substance abuse, addiction, and other chronic diseases by building capacity among professionals, fostering positive collaboration among providers, and strengthening the field of prevention through the use of evidence-based practices and strategies. NJPN demonstrates that Prevention Works!
Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments	Annual Addiction Conference. NJPN's 15th Annual Addiction Conference was held this year and brought over 800 professionals together for the state's premier event focused on substance abuse prevention, early intervention, treatment and recovery support. The Conference facilitates the dialog between leaders at the local, county and state level in order to better serve New Jersey's communities. The focus is on educating the state's front-line professionals about critical issues surrounding substance abuse and providing a unique forum for networking, collaboration and workforce development. Educational sessions taught by national and state experts provide attendees with the latest research and information pertinent to their respective fields. This venue provides an opportunity for the addiction community to come together to learn more about their specific area of focus, as well as other topics and issues that will help to create a stronger continuum of care in New Jersey. NJ Highway Traffic Safety. A special educational track was created for NJPN's Annual Addiction Conference that was funded through the Division of Highway Traffic Safety Department. This track targeted preventionists and offered a power session and two workshops that made the connection between drug and alcohol use by youth and the high risk of drinking and drugged driving. Addictions Training and Workforce Development (ATWD) Project. This workforce development project provides the required 270 hours of education needed for individuals who are interested in becoming licensed or certified alcohol and drug counselors. The full curriculum of courses is provided at eight sites throughout the state, free of charge to participants. Advanced training is also provided for CAD/C and LCADC professionals. Scholarships for free classes for those interested in becoming a Certified Prevention Specialist(CPS) are also offered through NJPN and other approved providers throughout the state. Community Transformation Grant (CTG). NJPN was the lead agency for the CTG grant through funding from the Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). This national initiative ended September 30, 2014. Through this initiative, NJPN created the Coalition for a Healthy NJ, which is still maintained, to encourage collaboration and coordinate public health initiatives throughout the state. The coalition focuses on chronic disease prevention and addresses five strategic directions identified by CDC. These five strategic directions include tobacco-free living, active living and healthy eating, high quality clinical preventive services, social and emotional wellness, and healthy and safe physical environment. Training and Technical Assistance for the State's 17 Regional Substance Abuse Prevention Coalitions. The New Jersey Division of Mental Health and Addiction Services created a network of Regional Coalitions to address the state's substance abuse prevention priorities. NJPN was selected to provide technical assistance and support to the 17 Regional Coalitions regarding implementing the Strategic Prevention Framework including needs assessment, capacity building, planning, and implementation. Guided by national research as well as its own experiences, NJPN facilitates, participates in and provides technical assistance and support to the 17 coalitions. NJPN works with each regional coalition to successfully assess data, determine consumption patterns and consequences, prioritize needs, and develop a comprehensive strategic plan and logic model specific to their region and based upon relevant topics as guided by the four state-identified priorities. Through trainings, webinars and one-on-one technical assistance, NJPN is supporting the effective implementation of environmental strategies that will make population-level change within New Jersey. Evaluation Support for the Regional Coalitions. NJPN has been contracted by Rutgers to assist them in providing evaluation support to the 17 Regional Coalitions. The Evaluation Team has created consistent data collection tools that the Regional Coalitions have utilized during their needs assessment process to capture statewide information on the substance abuse trends, policy scan details and prevention resources. As this project moves forward, a comprehensive evaluation plan will be developed and implemented to measure the successes of the Regional Coalition Project. Military Personnel and their Families. NJPN coordinates this statewide project through a network of local prevention partners that provide prevention programs to military personnel and their families. Military personnel and their families are facing many challenges that can significantly impact their lives. Often, these challenges trigger stressors that can lead to family dysfunction, substance abuse, and other negative outcomes. NJPN developed two evidence-based programs to help support the New Jersey military community. These programs build on the strengths of these inspiring individuals and families and provide an opportunity to focus on family and life balance through parental and youth skill building, improved family communication and healthy coping skills to reduce stress. Military Family Nights and Achieving Personal Balance offer a prevention intervention that can strengthen the military community. Be The One Mobile Application. The Rutgers School of Social Work asked NJPN to collaborate with them to create a mobile app to support the efforts of the Regional Substance Abuse Prevention Coalitions. The result of this collaboration is Be The One, designed to invite users to share their view and take action. Be The One empowers people throughout New Jersey to make a difference in their county, by capturing and reporting the good and bad that impacts communities as it relates to substance abuse and youth. The app is a tool to post photos displaying a view of the community which will help local prevention coalitions focused on creating healthier communities in the county. It encourages everyone to "Be The One" to make a difference. The app also connects users to resources and tools to help themselves, a friend, or a family member that is in trouble with drugs or alcohol. Get Active NJ Program. NJPN's Get Active NJ program is funded by the NJ Department of Health and provides technical assistance, training and incentives to assist municipalities to find ways to educate stakeholders on different policies that can help promote walking and the many benefits that this can have on their communities. In order to help accomplish this, NJPN offers financial assistance to a small number of communities to help them evaluate and educate stakeholders on potential policy changes. In addition to financial resources, NJPN provides technical assistance and trainings to municipalities as they move through the policy change process in order to help them navigate its complexities. NJ Drug Free Communities (Impact NJ). In September 2014, the IMPACT NJ Coalition received a Drug-Free Communities grant from the Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP). It is one of only two statewide grants of this kind in the country. The IMPACT NJ Coalition focuses on reducing alcohol and marijuana use among youth 18 and under throughout the State of New Jersey. Building from current and previous coalitions coordinated by NJPN, IMPACT NJ brings together state and local leaders who are dedicated to sharing their expertise and time and work collaboratively to achieve common goals. The mission of the IMPACT NJ Coalition is to reduce substance use and abuse among youth through strong collaboration with key stakeholders, building capacity among members based on best practices, implementing evidence-based environmental strategies, and advocating for positive community changes.
