Part VI, Line 11a: Due to the large number of Board members (26), it is not practical for each member to review Form 990 and the audited financial statements prior to filing. Therefore such documents are provided to the Audit Committee and to the key representatives of the Finance Committee, the organization's Chair, Executive Director and the VP for Finance of Middlesex County College.

Part VI, Line 12c: The Foundation has a conflict of interest policy for Trustees and Directors to review and sign new declarations effective for each fiscal year. Forms are included in Board members' packets for completion by each member and returned to the Foundation.

Part VI, Line 15a: The appropriate compensation package for the Executive Director is determined by reference to comparable positions at Middlesex County College. The Executive Director acts as the Chief Operating Officer. Areas of leadership responsibility which are taken into account include fundraising, scholarship administration, financial management, personnel skills, development of best practices, and similar qualities. Compensation is directly linked to experience, performance objectives and job description.

Part VI, Line 15b: There are no officers or other employees who are compensated that meet the definition of "key employee".

Part VI, Line 19: Governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial information will be made available upon receipt at the organization's office of a written request for such information. Form 990 is also available on the "Guidestar" website.

Part VII, Section A: Average hours per week of the Board members has been estimated by the organization. All of the Board members are volunteers who receive no compensation or expense reimbursement. As non-employees they are not required to file time sheets or otherwise account for their time. They give of their time and expertise to promote the mission of the organization, expending the level of effort they feel is required to fulfill their obligation. Asking them to quantify this effort in terms of hours would be an affront to their dedication and discourage other qualified persons from considering service to the organization.
