organization, is to provide the highest quality system of care for children and families. . .to ensure safety, restore emotional wellness, and build family stability. Bethanna offers a continuum of services to support at-risk children, youth, and their families. Bethanna's guiding belief is that these children should live with and be raised by their birth parents. We believe that children can best reach their potential in a family setting. Many of the children Bethanna serves have experienced physical, emotional, and sexual abuse. These children have developmental, behavioral, emotional, or medical needs. Their families have been torn apart by substance abuse, neglect, domestic violence and other crises. All need a place to call their own.

Bethanna is committed to providing children with stability, warmth, and

This team approach promotes partnering with children and families to understand their strengths and challenges, as well as develop strategies to meet them with competence. Clinical Transition and Stabilization Services (CTSS)

Clinical Transition and Stabilization Services are designed to bridge the gap in service access that traditionally families experience with other levels of care in Philadelphia County. We increase the likelihood of a stable placement, with a decreased need for readmission to acute levels of service by offering prospective caregivers specialized support upon their child/youth's discharge from inpatient or residential programs.

CTSS is also available to those children/youth that reside with their biological, foster/kinship or adoptive families and are at risk of disruption of these placements as a result of attachment disruptions. Modeled like many of the community-based treatment teams, this format intends to be short-term, e.g. 90-days, and provides intensive behavioral health assessment and clinical services until the individual and family served are able to successfully transition to other longer-term providers. Teams of two provide services in homes, schools,
