Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

Name of the organization	Employer identification number
Alumni Assoc of Univ of Michigan	23-7206591

A. Each Director will review the Policy and will be asked to disclose any personal Business Relationship or Financial or Other Interest, or that of a Related Individual, that the Director knows could reasonably give rise to an actual or potential conflict of interest with the Alumni Association. Each Director shall acknowledge annually, by affixing his or her signature to the attached Certificate of Compliance, that he or she is acting in accordance with the letter and spirit of this Policy and has made all disclosures required under the terms of the Policy.

B. Notwithstanding A., each Director shall promptly disclose to the Chair of the Board ("Chair") any actual or potential conflict of which the Director becomes aware and which may arise between completions of a Certificate of Compliance from year to year. At such time, the Director shall complete an updated Certificate of Compliance and submit it.

C. At least once annually, the Chair and his or her fellow officers (collectively hereinafter, the "Officer(s)") of the Board will review all conflict disclosures with the President and Counsel, in order to ascertain the present and future effects of the disclosed conflicts. Per III.D, the Officers shall affirmatively act upon actual conflicts that are generated by pending or imminent contracts or other business transactions (collectively, "Transactions") with the Alumni Association. The Officers shall act on all other disclosed conflicts as they deem necessary and appropriate. Additionally, they will consider if any or all such disclosures should be referred to the Board, in Executive Session, for further review and action. The Officers shall keep minutes of their review of the conflicts and make those minutes available at the Alumni Association for review, but not copying or removal, by other Directors.

D. Procedures For Addressing Conflicts of Interest In Pending Transactions.

Name of the organization

Employer identification number

Alumni Assoc of Univ of Michigan

23-7206591

1.If the Alumni Association is considering a pending or imminent Transaction that involves a conflict of interest disclosed by a Director, the Officers shall work with the President and Counsel to investigate alternatives to the Transaction. They shall review appropriate comparable data and determine whether a more advantageous Transaction can be obtained with reasonable efforts by the Alumni Association.

If the Transaction in question arises from a conflict with any Officer, that Officer shall recuse him or herself; the most senior Officer remaining shall appoint a disinterested Director to replace the recused Officer in considering alternative Transactions.

2.If it is determined that a more advantageous Transaction cannot be obtained with reasonable efforts by the Alumni Association, then the Officers shall determine , with the approval of a majority of disinterested Directors in Executive Session,

-a. whether the Transaction is in the Alumni Association's best interest and for its own benefit,

-b. whether the Transaction is fair and reasonable to the Alumni Association, and

-c. whether to enter into the Transaction in conformity with such determination in a. and b. above.

3.The Officers shall keep minutes of their meeting. The minutes shall reflect the discussion of the conflict and Transaction, the nature of data reviewed, the record of votes taken, and any action the Officers agree to take on the conflict and Transaction. The Officers shall make those minutes available at the Alumni Association for review, but not copying or removal, by other Directors.

E.If two or more disinterested Directors disagree with the Officers' action taken on a particular conflict, they may request that the Board meet in Executive Session to review and reconsider the Officers' action and may request a vote to reverse the Officers' action. Reversal shall require the approval of a majority of disinterested Directors in Executive Session.

F.Any Director who has or may have a conflict of interest shall not participate or use any personal influence in the discussion of the matter involving the conflict and shall not make any recommendations regarding the matter. The Director shall formally recuse him or herself for the record and shall not be present when the matter is discussed and voted on.

G.Any Director, who is uncertain whether he or she has a conflict of interest or who desires assistance in interpreting this Policy, may seek advice from the Chair. If any Director perceives the existence of a potential or actual conflict of interest involving another Director, he or she shall immediately notify the Chair. If it is the Chair whom a Director suspects of a conflict of interest, that Director shall notify the next ranking Officer.

H.If, for purposes of subparagraph G, it is the Chair who is uncertain whether he or she has a potential conflict of interest, then he or she may seek advice from the other Officers.

I.All candidates for membership on the Board shall be advised of and acknowledge this Policy prior to the commencement of their service on the Board.

B.Disclosing, Evaluating, and Managing Potential Conflicts of Interest and Conflicts of Commitment

1. Identify and disclose potential conflicts of interest and conflicts of commitment

Whenever a potential conflict of interest or conflict of commitment exists for a staff member, he or she must promptly disclose it using the following guidelines:

a. The staff member must evaluate his/her conflict using the criteria below.

1. Work for Pay: Disclose the nature of the work and time commitment; do not need to disclose the specific employer unless it is a university unit or an AAUM business partner/vendor.

2. Volunteering: Need to disclose only if it is for a university unit or for a AAUM business partner/vendor

3. Conflicts of commitment can occur in many situations, whether you work for pay, are volunteering or are facing some significant situation in your personal life. The expectation is you will disclose this if/when it might impact your availability for work or your performance.

b. The staff member must discuss the conflict and his/her evaluation of it to his/her supervisor or the Human Resources Manager

c. If it is determined that a conflict of interest or a conflict of commitment may exist, the conflict must be disclosed in writing to the President and CEO of the Alumni Association (in the case of a potential conflict involving the President/CEO, he/she must disclose it, in writing, to the Chair of the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association). If it is determined that a conflict does not exist, no further disclosure is necessary, however the staff member should periodically re-evaluate as circumstances and relationships evolve.

2. Evaluating disclosures of potential conflicts of interest or conflicts of commitment

The President/CEO shall evaluate all disclosed potential conflicts of interest or conflicts of commitment. The President/CEO may require the staff member to provide additional information or documentation that may be relevant to evaluating the potential conflict of interest or conflict of commitment.

As needed, the President/CEO will consult with the Chair of the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association and/or legal counsel.

3. Developing plans to manage potential conflicts of interest and conflicts of commitment

When the President/CEO has determined that a potential conflict of interest or conflict of commitment exists that must be managed or eliminated, he or she must develop, in consultation with the employee, a recommended plan for managing the potential conflict. The President/CEO will then provide the plan to the employee's supervisor, who has authority for approving it. The supervisor will provide the employee with a copy of the approved conflict management plan and will discuss any related ambiguities or issues that arise. Adherence to the plan will be monitored by the employee's supervisor.
