Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts	Paid staff and board members are required to annually document in writing any interests, relationships or holdings that could potentially result in a conflict of interest. If a conflict of interest is identified from an annual disclosure, the organization's executive committee will review the conflict and takes appropriate action, which may include prohibiting an individual from participating in the board's deliberations and decisions regarding a certain transaction. If a conflict is identified during a meeting, the entire Board will decide what appropriate action to take.
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO, Top Management	The organization's executive committee, which is completely independent of the executive director, reviews annual salaries of executive directors of comparable nonprofit organizations. Written records are maintained to document these procedures.
Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 Other Organization Documents Publicly Available	The organization's governing documents, its conflict of interest policy, and its financial statements are not available to the public. However, the organization maintains a website as a source of additional information including a link to its trail project plan.
