Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the interest as soon as s/he realizes a conflict of interest exists to the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors or a governing body established by the Board President. After exercising due diligence with all the information available to it, the Executive Committee or governing board shall determine whether Casey Trees can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If not, the Executive Committee or governing board shall determine by a majority vote whether the transaction or arrangement is in Casey Trees' best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement. A record of the aforementioned proceedings shall be kept that identifies the person(s) with the potential conflict of interest, the nature of the conflict itself, the names of the members of the committee present for deliberations, and the nature of the discussion and resolution(s). Failure to report a conflict of interest may result in disciplinary action including termination.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	When hiring an Executive Director, the Board President shall review documents pertaining to the cash and non-cash compensation for Executive Directors of similar organizations to determine if the compensation package is appropriate. Setting of the initial salary level will account for skills, experience, locality adjustments, etc. Thereafter, on an annual basis, the Board President will review the Executive Director's performance, and account for factors such as internal and external pay equity and others as appropriate, to determine if a salary increase or other compensation is warranted. The President may assign this duty to another board member(s) at his/her discretion as needs dictate. The setting of the initial salary/benefit levels, and any increases, shall be reviewed and agreed to by the Executive Committee of the Board.
