Schedule D, Part IV, Line 2b Explanation of escrow agreement	The School holds funds in a custodial manner for various School clubs and groups. These funds are not for use of the School. When clubs and groups collect funds they are given to the business office for deposit. The funds are deposited to the School's main checking account at Huntington National Bank. For clubs and groups that have regular activity, such as language clubs and sports teams, monthly statements are sent to the club advisor. If the account is for a group that does not have regular activity throughout the year, statements are sent during the time when they are regularly depositing and using funds.
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of endowment funds	Columbus School for Girls endowment funds are to sustain the school for future generations, while providing for current students with financial aid scholarships and other donor designated gifts.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote	Generally accepted accounting principles prescribes recognition thresholds and measurement attributes for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. Tax benefits will be recognized only if a tax position is more-likely-than-not sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized will be the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the more-likely-than-not test, no tax benefit will be recorded. Management has concluded that they are unaware of any tax benefits or liabilities to be recognized at June 30, 2015 or 2014. The School would recognize interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest and income tax expense, respectively. The School has no amounts accrued for interest or penalties for the years ended June 30, 2015 or 2014. The School does not expect the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits to significantly change in the next 12 months.
