Part V, line 4	The endowment funds are used in the prevention of juvenile delinquency in low-income communities. These funds provide assistance to neighborhood groups and affiliates that have social and educational programs for children and young adults.
Part X, Line 2	The Agency is exempt from federal income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the internal revenue code (IRC) and applicable state law. The Agency follows the accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the agency may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the agency and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities during the period covered by these financial statements. The agency files form 990 in the u s federal jurisdiction and the state of illinois. The agency is generally no longer subject to examination by the internal revenue service for years before fiscal 2012.
