Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	A copy of the proposed Form 990 was posted on the organizations web site for the directors (only) to review and submit any comments or questions to the Treasurer of the organization before it is finalized and filed. A request for the Directors to review the proposed Form 990 was made to them by email.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	The organization's Board of Directors is relatively small and periodically its members are requested to submit a personal resume to all other board members so that each board member is familiar with the interests of each other board member. All transactions (principally purchases of printing services and printed products) with any person who may have a conflict of interest, are reviewed by the General Manager, who is not an officer or member of the board of directors, and then reviewed by the treasurer before payment is made.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	No officer or director receives compensation of any kind from the organization. Except for one hourly compensated employee, all other personnel are independent contractors who perform the functions of general manager, music director, musicians and their personnel director, a music librarian and box office attendant. All such people's compensation is reviewed and approved by the board of directors as part of the annual budgeting process.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19	The organization makes such information available to the public by viewing the Form 990 when it is available for public disclosure. To date, no officer or director knows of any occasion when any question or request for information has ever been made.
