Higher Education. Our mission is carried out through our curriculum, the character of our learning environment, our residential campus culture, and our community. Knox College has a tradition of free inquiry, independent thought, and diverse perspectives. Our students choose their own path toward a degree, guided by scholar teachers who encourage them to explore ideas and places, stretch their intellect and their talents, blend thought with action, and fuse imagination with initiative. Founded in 1837 by social reformers strongly opposed to slavery, Knox was one of the first colleges in the United States open to both women and people of color. It was on our campus that Abraham Lincoln chose to denounce slavery on moral terms for the first time, during the 1858 Lincoln-Douglas Debate. With a campus population that includes students from 48 states and 51 countries, 25% U.S. students of color, and individuals from every imaginable religious and socioeconomic background, members of the Knox community are actively challenged to broaden their points of view. Knox College is a college that changes lives. (1,376 Students)

Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part III, Line 1	The College has collections of valuable artwork, papers, and other memorabilia that were donated to the College. These items are on display and are used by educators, researchers, historians, and others. However, all proceeds from any sales of collections, or items in a collection, must be used to acquire other items for collections. (From Note 1 Knox College Financial Statements and Independent Auditor's Report For the Year Ended June 30, 2015)
Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	The College has collections of valuable artwork, papers, and other memorabilia that were donated to the College. These items are on display and are used by educators, researchers, historians, and others. (From Note 1 Knox College Financial Statements and Independent Auditor's Report For the Year Ended June 30, 2015)
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The College's endowment consists of several individual funds established for a variety of purposes: scholarships, professorships, library, lectureships, research, prizes, and donor specified educational activities. Included in these funds are both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Board of Trustees to function as endowments. (From Note 20 of Knox College Financial Statements and Independent Auditor's Report For the Years Ended June 30, 2015)
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The College is a not-for-profit entity as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and is exempt from federal income taxes on related income pursuant to Section 501(a) of the IRC. The College follows authoritative guidance issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) that clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an entity's financial statements and prescribes a recognition threshold of more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination. Measurement of the tax uncertainty occurs if the recognition threshold has not been met. This guidance also addresses derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, disclosure, and transition. The College conducts business solely in the U.S. and, as a result, files information returns for U.S. and Illinois. In the normal course of business, the College is subject to examination by taxing authorities. The College's information returns for years subsequent to fiscal 2011 are open, by statute, for review by authorities. However, at present, there are no ongoing income tax audits or unresolved disputes with the various tax authorities that the College currently files or has filed with.

Part III Supplemental Information

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	Occasionally the President's husband will accompany the President on College fund raising events. The College provides funding for his travel costs. These travel costs are not considered compensation as he is participating in fundraising for the College. Reimbursements for travel cost must follow the College's purchasing and accounts payable policies. These policies include requirements for documentation and receipts. The President is provided housing by the College. The President's house is considered a part of the College's campus and is used for College events and entertaining. The President's housing is considered nontaxable as it is provided for the convenience of the College.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3	Compensation is reviewed annually. This review includes cost of living statistics, compensation paid for similar positions at other similar colleges, and compensation paid locally for like positions. A standard achievement increase is determined and is approved by the Board of Trustees during the June meeting in conjunction with the approval of the following year's budget. The Board of Trustees reviews the President's salary and approves any changes. All staff increases are reviewed by the President, Vice Presidents, and heads of departments.

Explanation

Form 990, Part
V, Line 4a

The College offers two off campus programs--one in France at the University in Besancon and the other in Spain at the University of Barcelona. Each program has bank accounts which are not considered part of the College's bank accounts as the College has no control over these accounts. Only the program directors have signature authority for their program's accounts. The College also has two bank accounts with Wells Fargo in London-- one for the Besancon Program and one for the Barcelona Program.
