DELTA ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

A whistle blower is defined as a Board member of Delta Economic Development Corporation (DEDC), an employee of the Delta Child Development (DCDC) or a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., East St. Louis Alumnae Chapter who reports any activity that he or she considers to be illegal, dishonest, unethical or inappropriate to one or more of the parties or entities enumerated in this policy. The whistleblower is not responsible for investigating the activity or determining fault or corrective measures. Appropriate board officials or the East St. Louis Alumnae Chapter are charged with these responsibilities.

Examples of illegal, dishonest, unethical or inappropriate activities are violations of federal, state, or other local laws, improper billing or improper financial records. If a DEDC Board member, an employee of (DCDC) or a Delta have knowledge or concern about such activities, they are to report it to the President of the Board of Directors' who may refer the matter to the DEDC Finance Committee or may take other appropriate actions. The reporter must exercise sound judgment to avoid baseless accusations. Anyone, who intentionally files a false report of wrongdoing, will be subject to discipline up to an including termination of employment or removal from the board or what discipline determined necessary by the East St. Louis Alumnae Chapter.

Whistleblower protections are provided in two essential areas: (1) to provide confidentiality and (2) to prevent retaliation. Insofar as possible, the confidentiality of the whistleblower will be maintained. However, identity may have to be disclosed in-order to conduct a thorough investigation, to comply with the law and to provide accused individuals their legal rights of self defense.

DEDC will not retaliate against a whistleblower. This includes but is not limited to: protection from retaliation in the form of adverse employment actions for employees - - such as termination, compensation decreases, poor work assignments and threats of harm; and for board members via removal from an office or from the board. Any whistleblower who believes that he or she is being retaliated against must contact the president immediately. The right of protection of a whistleblower against retaliation does not include immunity from personal wrongdoing that is alleged and substantiated.

Persons with questions regarding this policy should contact the DEDC Board President.

DELTA ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

This policy guideline has been developed to ensure that the Delta Economic Development Corporation (DEDC) avoids Conflicts of Interest, or even the appearance of such, involving any member of its Board.

No Board member may participate in any decision making process when said person or members of her or his immediate family, or any party, group or organization to which said person has allegiance, may have an interest that may be seen as competing with the interests or concerns of DEDC, doing business as the Delta Child Development Center (DCDC).

Board members must carefully weigh all circumstances in which there may exist the possibility of accusations of competing interest. Any possible conflict of interest and any and all relevant information pertaining to the possible conflict must be disclosed to the Board, documented in writing, and the involved person(s) may not participate in any decision-making process related to the matter(s) in which there may be a conflict of interest. Further, the involved Board member(s) may be asked to excuse themselves from the room when there is any deliberation and decision on the particular matter(s) of interest.

Notwithstanding the above, the Board of Directors may waive the foregoing restrictions and allow a Board Member, with a conflict of interest, to join in such portion of the discussion on the matter(s) of interest as the Board deems appropriate. When there is doubt as to whether a conflict of interest exists, the matter shall be resolved by a vote of the DEDC Executive Committee, excluding the person(s) who may have the possible conflict.

Specific situations in which a conflict of interest exists, has the potential to exist, or even the appearance to exist and which warrant disclosure include, but are not limited to the following examples:

This policy shall be reviewed and signed by each duly elected DEDC Board member already on the board or as they are first seated on the board. A copy of the signed policy shall be given to each board member and filed in the DEDC files.
