	Form 990, Part III, Line 4a COMMUNITY BENEFIT REPORT - PART II	Some of the services listed above operate at a loss in order to ensure that all services are available to meet community health care needs. Expanding Awareness, Education and Health Promotion. Providence-Providence Park Hospital believes that it is essential to educate people regarding the types of behavior that improve their chances of living a healthy life and has invested significantly in unique, top quality health education and materials to accomplish its goals. Various classes provided to the community are as follows - Labyrinth walk - Open arms grief counseling - Prenatal and breastfeeding classes - Bereavement support group - Oncology bereavement support - Non-oncology bereavement support - Breast cancer support group - Individual counseling for cancer patients - Pediatric cancer parent support group - Cardiac rehabilitation program - Carelink education classes for senior adults - Clinical trials - Diabetes education program - Injury prevention classes to numerous schools and community groups - Free pediatric obesity program - Screenings for oral cancer - Hip and knee pain seminar - Hypnotherapy for smoking cessation - Lap band support group - Transplant support group. Education material also is provided via our website www.stjohnprovidence.org. Access To Care Programs. Providence-Providence Park Hospital operates many public health clinics. Public clinics range from specialty clinics such as pediatrics to general internal medicine clinics. Our public health clinics provide care for all community residents, regardless of their ability to pay. Services include the full range of preventive and primary health and dental care for adults and children, prenatal care, AIDS/HIV education and management of chronic diseases such as asthma, diabetes and heart disease. Providence-Providence Park Hospital provides clothing and food pantries in various units within the hospital. Our associates have had departmental bake sales and other benefits for individual patients in need. Educating the younger generation is a hallmark of Providence-Providence Park Hospital. To give underserved children an opportunity to learn a healthcare career, our human resources department participates with local Southfield Schools Medical and Natural Sciences Academy to provide employment to students as part of their normal school week. Our emergency department hosts students in the emergency center for several hours of learning and instructional hands-on education. Our physicians and leaders participate regularly in career days for local schools in which they have partnerships. Community Outreach Service. Providence-Providence Park Hospital provides charitable contributions to a number of community organizations. Providence-Providence Park Hospital has contributed funds for sponsorship in the community by volunteering and giving support to community organizations, parades, neighborhood advocacy and clean-up groups, community orchestras, health walks and marathons, health expos and health fairs, American Red Cross blood drives, churches, schools, career fairs at schools, police office benefits and community foundation outings. Providence-Providence Park Hospital is an active supporting member in community events and partners with many organizations to improve community health, such as American Red Cross, American Heart Association, Multiple Sclerosis Society, Manna Meal Soup Kitchen, Crisis Assistance Program, Physicians Who Care, Parish Nursing program, Shalom Providence Project, American Cancer Society. Community service is an important part of our existence. Charity Care. Providence-Providence Park Hospital offers a wide variety of health and wellness programs that meet diverse needs, regardless of economic status and physical condition. The uninsured are more likely to seek care in hospital emergency rooms. Providence-Providence Park Hospital had 119,412 emergency department visits in fiscal 2015. Increasingly, patients are experiencing limited abilities to pay for health care services or qualify for state and federally funded programs like Medicaid that cover only a portion of the costs provided. Providence-Providence Park Hospital offers various free clinics. For many Michigan residents, finding someone to care for them when they are sick is not as easy as making an appointment. Lack of health insurance, transportation issues and language barriers combine to create challenges. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2015, Providence-Providence Park Hospital treated adults and children from the community for a total of 153,122 patient days of service. Providence-Providence Park also provided services to 13,483 outpatient surgery patients. Providence-Providence Park Hospital Uncompensated Care for Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 2015: 1. Traditional charity care provided = $544,718 2. Unpaid cost of public programs for persons living in poverty = $25,969,840 3.
