Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of endowment funds	The endowment funds are used for both medical and educational (scholarship) purposes
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote	The Foundation is exempt from income tax under provisions of the Internal revenue Code Section 501 (c)(3). It is classified as a public charity (not a private foundation) under Internal Revenue Code Section 509(a)(3), Type II. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Foundation and recognize a tax liability if the Foundation has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS or other applicable taxing authorities. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Foundation and has concluded that as of June 30, 2015 and 2014, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the financial statements.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b Review of form 990 by governing body	Management, including certain officers, works diligently to complete the Form 990 and attached schedules in a thorough manner. Prior to filing the return, all Board Members are provided with a copy of the Form 990 and management team members' are available to answer any Board Member's questions.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	The organization regularly and consistently monitors and enforces compliance with the conflict of interest policy in that any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. The remaining individuals on the governing board or committee will decide if conflicts of interest exist. Each director, principal officer and member of a committee with governing board delegated powers annually signs a statement which affirms such person has received a copy of the conflict of interest policy, has read and understands the policy, has agreed to comply with the policy, and understands that the organization is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish its tax-exempt purpose.
