| PART I QUESTION 1 | The Shared Campus Grants program was implemented to support activities and interventions in public schools sharing spaces throughout Newark, that promote and foster community building, collaboration, the sharing of "best practices", and parent/family engagement. Activities funded by the Shared Campus Grants program include professional and leadership development, parent and family engagement, and shared campus identity. The Trust provides a list of public schools sharing locations throughout Newark to the funder along with a summary of needs and funding recommendations for approval. Upon approval funds are released to the Trust. These funds are then held as restricted within the Trust's Operating account. The disbursement of Shared Campus Grants is carried out as follows: 1) an RFP is issued to eligible schools, 2) The Trust reviews and approves all proposals, 3) Upon approval each school receives an award letter, disbursement policy and check request form, 4) To draw down funds, schools submit completed check requests with appropriate receipts and invoices, and 5) Checks are issued to specified vendors on behalf of the schools. Follow-up and post evaluations are required by the Trust. All grant awards are reconciled to the bank account and on-going balances of funds disbursed. Remaining funds are reviewed by the foundations and the organization on a regular basis. |
