Part VI. Section B. Policies. #11b. All Board Members were provided with a copy of the completed 990 prior to filing. Board Members were given time to review the 990 and then a teleconference took place wherein members could call in to ask questions, get clarification or suggest necessary edits. The President of the Board signed the final version and only then was the 990 submitted.

#12c. WI FACETS regularly and consistently monitors & enforces compliance with the agency conflict of interest policy. All Board Members must annually read the Board policy and sign a form confirming their understanding of the policy and must also disclose any real or potential conflicts. The Board President routinely checks for possible conflicts at meetings and reminds Board members about the need for disclosure of any new conflicts as they arise.

15a,b. The Board worked with the Executive Director and CEO/Founder to develop the "WI FACETS Compensation Program" rationale and "Wage and Salary Guidelines." The Compensation Program serves as the base philosophy for employee/employer understanding of pay issues. The WI FACETS Compensation Program aims to establish its overall competitive target to the greatest extent possible to reflect a median level in relation to the labor market. Comparability data (external market wage surveys) are regularly secured by the Executive Director & CEO/Founder. Local information is obtained through the Nonprofit Center of Milwaukee's biennial salary survey, conducted in collaboration with the Agency Executives Group of Milwaukee. National market information is obtained from surveys of other U.S. Dept. of Education/Office of Special Education Programs-funded parent centers and Regional Parent TA Centers. WI FACETS' Board Personnel/ Finance Committee evaluates the Executive Director and the CEO/Founder. Salary is set within the agency operating budget and the Compensation Program's Wage & Salary Guidelines. The Executive Director and CEO evaluate and set salary for project staff.

Part VI. Section C Disclosure

#19. WI FACETS' Form 990s are available on Guidestar and the WI FACETS' website.

Governing documents, including the Conflict of Interest policy are in the Board Policies & Procedures binder in the Executive Director's office. A table of contents lists all Board Policies and includes founding documents. The binder is available for public review upon request. WI FACETS' policies and 990s are often shared with other parent centers to assist with their policy development and reporting requirements. Financial statements are provided at least quarterly to the Board. Fiscal year binders of Board minutes and financial statements are maintained in the Board Reference section of the WI FACETS' office. Board Members and public may review them at any time. Conflict of interest statement, governing documents, and financial statements are included in funding application to public entities when requested.
