If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

Artist HealthcareSpringboard for the Arts supports artists healthcare through several programs. Artists Access to Healthcare (AAH) removes financial and system navigation barriers for artists and their families. AAH provides artists with vouchers to cover the cost of medical, dental and mental health services. In addition to distributing 168 health vouchers to artists, Springboard for the Arts provided 45 free health screenings and 36 flu shots artists in Minnesota. The Emergency Relief Fund (ERF) provided small monetary support for 5 artists who have chronic, often life-threatening medical conditions. We reached another 3,700+ artists via our online healthcare guide and videos, and through referrals and education in our role as certified Navigators for MNSure, Minnesotas health insurance marketplace Artist ResourcesIn FY15, Springboard for the Arts increased the capacity of our Resource Center for artists. Our computer workstations -- which are outfitted with graphic and slide scanners, Adobe Creative Suite, Microsoft Office, Lynda.com software training services, a publications library, and other grant-making and opportunities databases -- had more than 1,200 uses in FY15. Our self-service copying, printing and fax services were used thousands of times as well. We've expanded our legal referral service, connecting 83 artists with one-on-one attorney referrals in FY15 Community DevelopmentOur Community Development Program organizes and empowers artists to build reciprocal relationships with their communities, resulting in vibrant, creative, equitable places. We provide catalytic workshops, trainings and project management in partnership with city governments, neighborhood organizations, private institutions and other groups that wish to engage artists in community building, economic development, creative placemaking and innovative problem-solving. By addressing opportunities and challenges associated with change locally in Minnesota, we also create customizable modes for community communities nationally. In FY15, through Irrigate, we trained 115 artists in placemaking and collaboration, of which about 25 created a dozen cross-sector projects with local businesses, community groups and non-profits. The projects themselves involved dozens more artists and volunteers, and touched hundreds of viewers and participants. Through our Artist Organizer program, hundreds more artists were engaged in community engagement activities. In our work with other communities and towns, we have provided workshops for about 175 artists. We also presented our strategies and learnings to hundreds of professionals through conference presentations. Community Supported Art (CSA)In FY15, the Community Supported Art (CSA) program supported new work from 9 Minnesota artists, putting their art into 50 new households and creating a direct relationship between artist and patron. We also supported the replication of the CSA program with an updated toolkit. For the first time, we have a Spanish-language version of the toolkit, as well. There are now 28 communities nationwide that currently have their own active CSA program in 2015, based on our model. Since 2011, there have been over 55 CSA programs nationwide, and toolkits have been sent to well over 100 communities in North America and Europe. Fergus Falls In FY15 our Fergus Falls office provided professional training, a resource center, legal and healthcare services to over 350 artists and consulted with nine organizations, four of which were non-arts organizations. Through our Fergus Falls office, 306 artists took workshops, 14 artists took advantage of healthcare resources, and 22 artists received one-on-one consultations. In addition, the Rural Arts & Culture Summit had 367 participants and our Fergus Falls staff reached an additional 1,298 artists and community members through presentations and outreach activities. IncubatorSpringboard for the Arts' Incubator. A Fiscal Sponsorship Program provides fiscal sponsorship for arts groups and individual artist projects that do not want (or are not ready) to become tax-exempt nonprofit organizations. In FY15 we managed over $1 million in revenues for the 210 artist-led projects in the program. National ProgramSpringboard for the Arts continued to expand Creative Exchange, an online national network of support for artists and arts organizations through replication toolkits and artist project profiles. Replication toolkits include Springboard programs such as Community Supported Art, Artists' Health Fair and Irrigate, as well as partner toolkits around creative use of vacant retail space, artist-engaged community planning, pop-up museums and artist-led community projects. In FY15 9 toolkits were hosted, with 69 artist profiles published. Creative Exchange serves as a connection hub through hosting online discussion forums and content-sharing. In FY15, 195 toolkits were shared nationally. Professional DevelopmentIn FY15 Springboard for the Arts Professional Development programs served over 2,500 individual artists through workshops, one-on-one consulting and participation at leading conferences both locally and nationally. Springboard for the Arts presented 121 workshops on business skills for artists, 10 panels on specialized topics, 225 hours of individual consulting, and took part in several conferences highlighting our content, artist services, and mission.

Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Part IV, Line 1b Why is organization an agent, trustee, custodian or other intermediary for contrib	Springboards Fiscal Sponsorship Program is designed to be an incubator for small arts and cultural organizations founded by individual artists. Many of our clients eventual goals include becoming their own separate tax-exempt organization, though many others just want a way to solicit funds for a single project or event. Small, unincorporated groups founded by individual artists make up the majority of program participants, though many have taken the further step of incorporating as a nonprofit with the state of Minnesota. Organizations must either be based in Minnesota or producing a project in Minnesota. Fiscally sponsored projects must be in compliance with our federal tax-exempt status. Copyright and ownership of intellectual property remain with the artists, and they must indemnify Springboard from all related liability.
Part XI, Line 4b Other revenue amounts included on 990 but not included in F/S	Fiscal Sponsorship Activity $1316561 In-Kind Expense $11657
