Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 2b	The Foundation manages certain investments on behalf of other charitable organizations. The management of these investments are subject to agreements with each that govern the arrangements, including the timing of additions and redemptions.
Part V, Line 4	Grants awarded to or on behalf of the University of Minnesota collegiate programs in support of teaching, research, and outreach to the community.
Part X, Line 2	The Foundation follows the accounting standards for contingencies in evaluating uncertain tax positions. This guidance prescribes recognition threshold principles for the financial statement recognition of tax positions taken or expected to be taken on a tax return that are not certain to be realized. No liability has been recognized by the Foundation due to implementation of this standard. The Foundation's tax returns are subject to review and examination by federal and state authorities. The tax returns for the years 2012 through 2014 are open to examination by federal and state authorities.

Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	The University of Minnesota Foundation holds funds to benefit the University of Minnesota. The various departments of the University are responsible for requesting fund grants to be transferred to the University when needed. The Foundation makes certain the fund grant use matches the fund purpose and then disburses the money to the University. The University Office of Internal Audit regularly audits the departments to make sure the funds are being used for the appropriate purposes. The Foundation ensures the tax-exempt status of any organization to which it is moving grant monies or which a grant was made. In addition, the Foundation ensures the purpose of the grant is clearly understood by the transferee organization.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 2
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a	The Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota shall appoint at least one-fourth of the members of the Board of Trustees
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Form 990 is reviewed by the Controller and Chief Financial Officer, as well as an external paid preparer. After those reviews are complete, the Form 990 is reviewed by the Audit Committee Chair before being presented to the full Audit Committee. Finally, a hard copy of the form is distributed to the entire Board of Trustees before filing the return.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Officers, Trustees, and Designated Managers are required annually to read the conflict of interest policy and disclose any interests that could be of conflict. The CFO and accounting staff review the conflict of interest forms for any potential conflicts. To date, no conflicts of interest have been reported. However, if a possible conflict was reported, the Chair would ask the person in conflict to abstain from discussions and voting, and the person may even be asked to resign from the board if necessary to be in compliance with policy. If a conflict arises during the year, it is the Trustee's responsibility to disclose (prior to the meeting where the proposed transaction or arrangement is to be considered) to the Board of Trustees or the committee.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	As a non-profit, the Foundation must demonstrate reasonable compensation for executive level positions (CEO and Officers). The following are in place to document and support executive compensation practices: annually the Foundation participates in and reviews market salary data, including national foundations/university development compensation survey, bi-annually non-profits CEO compensation survey, tracking of Form 990 data of other non-profit foundations, local/national surveys. Compensation review and approval process consists of: 1. Executive staff compensation is recommended by the Foundation CEO, reviewed and discussed with the Board Chair and Human Resources (HR) Committee Chair. Compensation for the CEO is prepared by the Board Chair and HR Committee Chair for review and approval by the HR Committee. 2. Performance and compensation is reviewed for discussion/questions and approval by HR Committee of the Board of Trustees. It is noted the HR Committee members are "disinterested" parties under IRS intermediate sanctions. 3. The CEO and HR Committee Chair then present the officer compensation actions to the Board of Trustees Executive Committee for review and ratification. Then without the CEO present and in executive session, the Board Chair and HR Committee Chair present CEO performance and compensation for review and ratification. The approvals of the CEO and officer compensation are documented in the meeting notes. These procedures are performed annually for the CEO and officers with the most recent being performed in July 2015. In Executive Session of the quarterly Board of Trustees meeting each August, the Board Chair and HR Committee Chair report to the full board on performance and compensation for executives.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The audited consolidated financial statements of the University of Minnesota Foundation are available on the Foundation's website or are available upon request. The Foundation does not make its governing documents or conflict of interest policy available to the public.
