Part VE - section B, 12-a

As board members change jobs (this is rare as most are retired) they self-report new requirements that could involve a possible conflict of interest. Any time the possibility of a "conflict" issue comes up the individual board member will excuse themselves from the meeting until the issue is resolved.

Part VI - Section B, 15b

Compensation for our part-time employees is determined by comparing their experience, previous employment, "gifts" they bring to the position along with their salary requests.

Part VII- Section A, Line 14

Rachael Stiener is the DCSD Liaison to the foundation. She provides communication from the district to the foundation about district activities, projects, and programs and communication back to DCSD about foundation activities, projects, and programs. The position is non-voting.
