Facts And Circumstances Test

Soroptimist International of Kansas City (SIKC) is dedicated to supporting our community, meeting other great women, and having a fun time doing it. Our club gives to the community through hands-on volunteering, awards and recognition programs, and generous grants. This year alone, $37,567 was distributed to 7 local community organizations to support multiple women's programs and causes. The 2014 Live Your Dream Awards, which aid female heads of households seeking to expand their opportunities through education, totaled $2,700. Applications for Discretionary Awards were approved for 6 local women's shelters and totaled $60,000. These awards are intended to assist with natural disasters and other pressing needs in the community. Application for these awards is open to all community organizations with programs that further the Soroptimist mission of improving the lives of women and girls in the greater Kansas City area. SIKC has restructured its fundraising efforts to expand its reach into the community. The major fundraiser this upcoming year will be in March 2016 and include presentations of short films made by women, for women. We expect to have strong support from the community, attracting individuals from a range of backgrounds who will watch these creative films and learn about the mission of SIKC. Funds raised will be used by the club to support its vision of a global volunteer organization working to improve the lives of women and girls through programs leading to social and economic empowerment. SIKC has provided services to the community for many decades, while the Foundation has been in existence for sixty years. Our membership is made up of women of all ages and ethnic groups, from all walks of life and cultures, in diverse businesses and professions. Our Board Members are strong community leaders, with professionals who are lawyers, educators, non-profit employees, and caring community volunteers.
