Return Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 4	All gifts are subject to prior review and approval by the board. Gifts received help to further higher education by serving academic, religious, and cultural needs of the students.
Part IV, Line 2b	University of Mary chartered clubs, student academic associations, and approved faculty and staff associations have established university agency accounts.
Part V, Line 4	Permanently Restricted and Board Restricted Endowments - Income from these funds is used to help further the exempt purpose of the university. Loan Fund Endowments - Used to loan students money on a short term basis until financial aid comes through. Typically, the loans are only outstanding for a week or so. Family Fund Endowments - To benefit various non-profit organizations specified by the donor including the university. As per the financial statements the beginning balance of the Endowment net assets changed by $914,007 due to improper classification of endowment investment income.
Part X, Line 2	The University is a nonprofit organization and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3). The University is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, the entities are subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to their exempt purposes. The University has determined it is not subject to unrelated business income tax and has not filed an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (Form 990-T) with the IRS. The University believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The entities would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred. While preparing the Form 990, it was discovered the University would have a Form 990-T filing requirement and as a result is filing a 990-T for the year ending June 30, 2015.

Part I, Line 1a	The President is required to live in the President's House on campus. The President and Chairman Emeritus (who is also the former president) both receive various minor personal services for convenience such as automotive maintenance or minor housekeeping. These are nontaxable benefits and not reported as taxable compensation. In addition, a guest house on campus is typically used for housing transitional employees who are new to the university.
Part I, Line 1b	In 2009, the Board of Trustees voted that it was in the interests and convenience of the University to maintain president's housing on campus and therefore established a residence for the president.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1	It takes its tone from the commitment of the Sisters of Annunciation Monastery. These Sisters founded the University in 1959 and continue to sponsor it today. It is Christian, it is Catholic, and it is Benedictine. We cherish our Christian, Catholic, Benedictine identity, we welcome and serve persons of all faiths. We are faithfully Christian. As a Christian university, we strive to accomplish our mission in faithfulness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We regard each human person as created in the image and likeness of God, gifted with life and dignity. We seek to be agents of cultural renewal in our time and place, courageous advocates for justice and peace. Our Christian commitment is born from and sustained by the encounter of the Risen Lord, who came not to be served but to serve. As He humbly washed the feet of His disciples on the night before He died, so we seek to serve one another. We are faithfully Christian. We are joyfully Catholic. As a Catholic university, we joyfully draw our life from the heart of the Church, identifying with the ancient tradition which gave rise to the first universities in medieval Europe. This Catholic intellectual tradition proposes an integrated spiritual and philosophical approach to the most enduring questions of human life. Thus we seek to advance the vital dialogue between faith and reason, while acknowledging the proper autonomy of the arts, sciences, and professions. A university is a place for the free exchange of ideas, and so we warmly welcome students and faculty of many faiths and convictions. At the same time, our common discourse ever takes place in a spirit of authentic respect for Catholic teaching and practice. We acknowledge the Catholic faith as a path to moral integrity and personal holiness. We are joyfully Catholic. We are gratefully Benedictine. As a Benedictine university, we remember with gratitude the Benedictine Sisters who came to Dakota Territory in 1878, bringing ministries of teaching and healing. This community of Sisters would become our founders and sponsors and, through them, we share in the 1500-year-old heritage of the Benedictines. Inspired by lives of prayer, community, and service, Saint Benedict and his spiritual followers through the ages have been a stable source of tremendous good in the world: renewing the Church, preserving learning, cultivating wisdom, modeling humane virtues of balance and generosity. The life of our Sisters shapes our life. We are gratefully Benedictine.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1	Standing Committees. The corporation shall establish and maintain as standing committees a Trusteeship Committee, an Audit Committee, a Public Affairs and Mission Advancement Committee, and an Executive Committee. A Trusteeship Committee. The Trusteeship Committee shall be appointed annually by the President of the Board (prioress). The committee shall consist of four (4) trustees, which includes the president of the university as an ex-officio member of the committee. Such trusteeship committee shall recommend to the corporate membership names and qualifications for consideration to fill any positions on the board of trustees. After approval by the corporate membership, the trusteeship committee submits to the board of trustees nominees for election to the board. In addition, the committee shall recommend to the board a slate of candidates for chair, vice chair, and secretary. A majority vote of the total board of trustees currently serving is required for election of a trustee or an officer. The committee shall develop and administer a program of orientation for newly appointed trustees. B Executive Committee. The chair of the board of trustees, in consultation with the president of the board (prioress), the president of the university, and other trustees shall appoint the executive committee at the annual meeting. The executive committee shall consist of nine (9) trustees, to include the chair of the board, the president of the board (prioress), four additional members of the corporation and three additional trustees. Serving as the principal liaison to the board of trustees, the president of the university shall be present ex officio without a vote and not to be counted for a quorum. A quorum of the executive committee is a majority of the trustees serving on the executive committee. To constitute a valid quorum, the quorum must include four (4) members of the corporation. A quorum of the executive committee is required to transact business. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting without further notice. The executive committee shall meet as often as necessary to conduct its business as determined by the chair and the president of the university. There shall be at least two (2) regular meetings of the executive committee annually. In collaboration with the president of the university, the duties of the executive committee shall include the following: -Making decisions that have been delegated by the full board -Taking action on emergency matters which cannot or should not be deferred to the board's next scheduled meeting -Performing initial assessment of the President of the University annually -Performing such duties as described in its statement of operation. The Executive Committee shall act on behalf of the board between meetings except on the following matters: -Selection and appointment of the President of the University -Selection of trustees and officers -Adoption of the annual budget -Conferral of degrees -Exercise of those powers reserved by the members of the corporation as provided in Article V. Section 3 of the University's bylaws. Other Committees. After consultation and recommendation of the Board of Trustees, the Chair of the Board of Trustees shall designate and appoint committees to facilitate the actions of the Board of Trustees, enabling it to function more efficiently and effectively. Each committee shall have, subject to the approval of the Board of Trustees, a statement of operation prescribing the purposes, goals and responsibilities of the committee. Other committees that currently exist are: -Investment Committee -Finance Committee -Enrollment Services Committee -Academic Affairs and Student Life Committee.
