Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Bureau has applied for exemption from the payment of federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code. While the Bureau has not yet received approval for exemption by the Internal Revenue Service, management believes the Bureau has met all requirements to qualify for exemption. The Organization believes that it has appropriate purpose for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The Organization would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Officers and Board members are required to complete a conflict of interest policy annually disclosing any possible conflicts of interest. The Board reviews any conflicts and the interested person is given an opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Board. The interested person is asked to leave the Board meeting. The Chairperson of the Board shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the governing board determines whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing Board may determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it will make the decision as to enter into the transaction.
