Part X Minimum Investment Return

The assets of the Trust Fund are used directly for carrying out the exempt purposes of the organization. Although the assets consist of a time certificate of deposit, and a passbook savings account which produce interest income, these are the only assets of the fund and are the only source of income which makes the granting of scholarships possible.

Part XV Supplementary Information - Question 2d

Any person who possesses the necessary desire and potential to further his or her education, is in need of financial assistance to continue his or her education, is a graduate of Reinbeck Public School, and plans to further his or her education by attending either an accredited college or some comparable technical or vocational school is qualified to receive the scholarship.

Part XVI-B Supporting Data

1. The entire amount of the fund is used for charitable purposes. 100% of the administrative expenses are in support of the charitable purposes.

The Trust department handles the investment of the assets which are listed in this report. Number of beneficiaries is dependent upon the income.

2. 100% of the income comes from the certificate of deposit and the savings account.
