Return Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 4	The organization received Thomas Kinkadee paintings and prints from a donor during the fiscal year ended 6/30/2008. This collection of artwork is and will be used for the viewing of the general public through public exhibition and for future investment purposes when it is sold at a later date.
Part V, Line 4	The endowment funds are held by MidAmerica Nazarene Foundation, a related tax exempt organization. Earnings from the endowment funds are to be used to fund the continuing operations of the university.
Part X, Line 2	The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the consolidated financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in expenses in the consolidated statement of activities. As of June 30, 2015 and 2014, the University had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the consolidated financial statements. The University files tax returns in the U S federal jurisdiction. With a few exceptions, the University is no longer subject to U S federal examinations by tax authorities for years before 2012.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The University's controller gathers and provides an independent accounting firm with information to prepare the Form 990. The independent accounting firm prepares and reviews the Form 990. The independent accounting firm then provides the organization's officers a draft of the Form 990 and allows time for comments and approval. After approval, the Form 990 is submitted via email to all voting members of the University's governing board along with a response time for questions and comments. Any and all issues are resolved and then the completed Form 990 is filed with the Internal Revenue Service.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	All trustees, MidAmerica Nazarene University Foundation trustees, and administrative officers of the University (members of the President's Cabinet) must disclose annually in writing any conflict of interest, or potential conflict of interest. If a circumstance should arise where it may be in the best interest of the University to engage in a transaction despite the conflict of interest, after disclosure of the conflict of interest, the individual with whom the conflict of interest is present must abstain from any discussion or deliberation concerning such matter (unless the Board of Trustees or administration requests information or interpretation for special reasons). Record of such individual's withdrawal from participation in the discussion, deliberation, and decision on the matter should be noted in any minutes of the session at which such matter is considered. Should a potential conflict of interest matter require an executive committee or board vote to resolve, those concerned shall not be present at the time of the vote. If a trustee, MidAmerica Nazarene University Foundation trustee, or administrative officer is uncertain whether to list a particular relationship, the board chair and institutional legal counsel may need to be consulted. The board chair and legal counsel may elect to seek the judgment of the executive committee of the Board of Trustees before informing or consulting with the entire board within an executive session. Information shared or gathered as a result of such consultations (including information provided on the conflict of interest statement) shall be confidential except when the institution's best interests would be served by disclosure. Such disclosure will be made only after informing those concerned. The finance committee of the Board of Trustees will conduct periodic reviews of financial activities to ensure that the University is operating in a manner consistent with accomplishing the institution's non-profit purposes and that the University's operations do not result in private inurement or impermissible benefit to private interest.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The President and other executive administrators are employed with the approval of the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees determines their compensation based upon an analysis of comparable market rates and terms. The review and deliberation are documented in the board minutes.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements available to the public upon request.
Form 990, Part XII, Line 2c	The organization's Board assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit of its financial statements and selection of its independent accountant. This process has not changed since the prior year.
