Part IV

Supporting Organizations (continued)

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part II, Line 5	The Virginia Outdoors Foundation has the responsibility to enter the property from time to time (usually on an annual basis) for purposes of inspection and enforcement of the terms of the easement after permission from and reasonable notice has been given to the College. The Foundation has the right to bring an action at law or in equity to enforce the restrictions as outlined in the easement. This right specifically includes the right to require restoration of the property to a condition of compliance with the terms of the easement as existed on the date of the gift of the easement. A report is received from the Virginia Outdoors Foundation detailing their visit and addresses any issues that may arise. The College has a full time Director of the Claytor Nature Center (the farm) who is responsible for working with the Virginia Outdoors Foundation.
Schedule D, Part II, Line 9	The Virginia Outdoors Foundation easement was included with a gift of a 470 acre farm received in 1998. The gift of the farm was substantiated by a real estate appraisal report and recorded as an asset to the College on the Statement of Financial Position and as gift revenue on the Statement of Activities when received.
Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	The College's art collection includes paintings, drawings, prints, and sculptures by Pierre Daura, works by Virginia folk artist Queena Dillard Stovall, works by Lynchburg artist Georgia Morgan, and numerous works by other American and European artists. The mission of the Daura Gallery is to serve the College and the community by providing opportunities for learning, enjoyment, and personal growth, by strengthening the creative and curricular life of the College and by encouraging the interdisciplinary affiliation of the visual arts with diverse academic disciplines.
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The College's endowment includes 1) funds that offer a comprehensive financial aid program for students demonstrating financial need, academic merit, and special leadership traits, 2) funds that support Distinguished Chairs, professorships, and special lectureships, 3) funds that offer numerous special programs to benefit students, faculty, staff and the broader community which are diverse in focus and create unique learning opportunities and 4) funds that offer financial support to the College's annual operating budget.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 2d	Includes Financial Aid ($31,030,230) and Change in value of Split Interest Agreements ($224,096).
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 4b	Includes Special Events.

Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Within the limits of available resources, the College makes every effort to make financial aid opportunities available to needy and academically eligible students. Traditional-age students must be enrolled in a full-time undergraduate degree program to be considered for College academic scholarships, grants and/or need-based financial aid. With the exception of some academic scholarships, students who wish to apply for grants, loans or work-study submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Awards are considered on the basis of financial need and/or a student's academic profile. Awards are packaged using a combination of grants and scholarships, loans and work-study assignments. Students must be in good academic standing and achieve the minimum standards of academic progress. We use College Board's Powerfaids software to manage our financial database and awarding procedures.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part V, Line 1a	Includes Tax Forms 1099-MISC (138), 1099-R (51) and 1098-T (3567)

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	The Tax Form 990 is internally prepared by the Senior Accountant - Endowment and Investments and reviewed by the Controller and VP for Business and Finance. The Form 990 is then sent to be reviewed by the following Trustees: Chair of the Board, Chair of the Budget and Finance Committee, and all members of the Audit Committee. They read over the document and notify the Business Office of their approval within three business days. The completed Tax Form 990 is then emailed (or sent overnight) to all Trustees. The Business Office executes and submits the 990 to the IRS. Schedule B, Schedule of Contributors, is not included in the information sent to the Trustees in order to maintain confidentiality for the College's donors.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	As outlined in the College's By-Laws, the Board prohibits conflict of interest by its Trustees and College Officers in particular matters under consideration by the Board, in accordance with the Conflict-of-Interest policy for Trustees and College Officers. Each Trustee and College Officer is asked to 1) review the Conflict-of-Interest policy annually, 2) disclose any possible personal, familial or business relationships that reasonably could give rise to a conflict involving the College, 3) acknowledge by his or her signature that he or she is in compliance with the letter and spirit of the policy. If a conflict is suspected or confirmed, the matter shall be discussed between the committee chair, the board chair, and the trustee in question, to determine if any specific vote by the trustee should be recanted and if said trustee should be involved in any future discussion on that topic. Should the matter not be resolved by the committee chair, the board chair, and trustee in question, ultimate enforcement of any conflict will be determined by the Executive Committee as may be appropriate. The completed Conflict-of-Interest forms are monitored and maintained in the President's Office.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The compensation for all faculty and staff (except the College President) is set on an annual basis in keeping with the College's salary plan that was adopted after a year-long study in 2005-06. The President's salary is set by the College's Compensation Committee. The committee is led by the Board Chair and includes several other Board members who have been appointed to the committee by the Board Chair. The purpose of the committee is to review the President's job performance and determine the appropriate salary to recommend to the full Board of Trustees. The Trustees meet in Executive session during the annual May meeting to receive the report of the compensation committee and act on their recommendation. The actions of the Board of Trustees while in Executive session are documented in the minutes of the meeting. In October 2010, the College obtained the service of an independent consultant to analyze the President's compensation package with Presidential compensation data from approximately ten (10) to fifteen (15) comparator colleges.
