CRITERIA FOR GRANTS

Grants are made to non-profit organizations which qualify under IRS regulations and which are operated for religious, charitable, artistic, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, so long as attempts to influence legislation or support candidates for public office do not form a substantial part of their activities.

Seay Foundation funds may be granted for general use for philanthropic purposes. Morgan Foundation funds may be used only for capital expenditures, and under the terms of the Morgan will, preference is given to uses which "will promote the cause of the Church, fostering Christian education and Christian higher education and bring relief from pain and suffering to those less fortunate members of the community."

Grants may not be made to individuals, and normally grants are made only to organizations in the Commonwealth of Virginia. As a rule, contributions are not made to periodic campaigns for funds by national or community organizations. Requests for endowment funds generally are not considered. The foundations cannot make loans, and applications for debt reduction are discouraged.

Matching or challenge grants are strongly encouraged. Grants usually are not paid until the grantee has sufficient funds in hand, borrowed, or pledged to complete the project.

While the awarding of a grant does not preclude later grants to the same organization, the Allocations Committee prefers to avoid commitment for continuing support by awarding an additional grant no sooner than two years after payment of the previous grant.

Proposals are evaluated on the basis of clearly stated objectives and a reasonable, well-developed plan for achieving them, feasibility, demonstrated need for the project, and appropriateness to the purposes of the foundation from which the grant is requested.

PROCEDURE FOR APPLYING

The foundations do not use grant application forms. The applicant should submit a proposal to the appropriate foundation which includes all of the following:

1. A concise description of the project including specific purposes for which the requested grant is to be used, its need, and the anticipated results.
 2. A detailed budget for the project, including total cost, the specific amount requested and, in the case of a matching grant, the desired matching ratio.
 3. A schedule for the project, the amount raised to date, plans for procuring the remainder, other funding sources, and provision for contingencies and on-going support.
 4. A description of the organization including its general purpose, past accomplishments, and plans for the future.
 5. A current balance sheet and operating statement showing the major sources from which the organization derives support and endowments, if any.
 6. Qualifications of project personnel and a statement from the chief administrator of the organization indicating approval of the grant request and assurance that the grant will be spent within one year of its receipt.
 7. Copies of IRS forms certifying that the organization:
 - A. is exempt from federal income tax payment under Section 501(c)(3) and
 - B. is not classified as a private foundation as defined in Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- (In cases where IRS forms are on file with the foundation, a letter stating that the organization's status is unchanged is required.)
8. Names and affiliations of the organization's trustees, directors, or advisors.

REVIEW OF APPLICATIONS

Applications may be submitted at any time. They are reviewed initially by the consultant to the foundations. Meetings for the evaluation of proposals and allocation of funds by the Trust Committee are scheduled for the third Tuesdays of June and December each year. For a proposal to be considered at the June meeting, complete information must be submitted by May 1; the deadline for applications for the December meeting is November 1. Each applicant will be notified of the Committee's decision on its proposal after the meeting at which it is considered.

Recipients of grants are expected to report to the foundation which made the allocation no later than one year after payment of the grant indicating how the funds were used and evaluating the project.

Proposals and correspondence concerning grants from The Seay Foundation and The Morgan Foundation should be addressed to:
