SCHEDULE OF INFORMATION FOR FORM 990-PF

PART XV, LINE 2b:

The foundation does not use grant application forms. The applicant should submit a proposal to the foundation that includes all of the following:

A concise description of the project, including specific purposes for which the requested grant is to be used, its need and the anticipated results;

A detailed budget for the project including total cost, the specific amount requested, and in the case of a matching grant, the desired matching ratio;

A schedule for the project, the amount raised to date, plans for procuring the remainder, other funding sources and provision for contingencies and on-going support;

A description of the organization including its general purpose, past accomplishments and plans for the future;

A current balance sheet and operating statement showing the major sources from which the organization derives support and endowments, if any;

Qualifications of project personnel and a statement from the chief administrator of the organization indicating approval of the grant request and assurance that the grant will be spent within one year of its receipt,

Copies of IRS forms certifying that the organization

- (a) Is exempt from federal income tax under IRC section 501(c)(3) and
- (b) Is not classified as a private foundation as defined in IRC section 509(a)

In cases where IRC forms are on file with the foundation, a letter stating that the organization's status is unchanged is required,

Names and affiliations of the organization's trustees, directors or advisors, and

A brief report to the foundation, no later than one year after payment of a grant indicating how the funds were used and the status of the project
