Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of endowment funds	The ACA endowment provides support to higher education and related services (fellowships, scholarships and professional development) to the membership of the association. The association membership is comprised of 35 independent liberal arts institutions.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote	The Association is a nonprofit corporation and is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Association has also been classified as an entity that is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a). A tax position is recognized as a benefit only if it is "more likely than not" that the tax position would be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized is the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the "more likely than not" test, no tax benefit will be recorded. The Association recognizes interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest and income tax expense, respectively. The Association has no amounts related interest or penalties during the years ended June 30, 2015 and 2014. Due to its tax-exempt status, the Association is not subject to U.S. federal income tax or state income tax and does not expect the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits to significantly change in the next 12 months. The Association's tax years 2012 through 2014 are open under applicable United States statutes of limitations.

VI, Line 1a
Delegate broad authority to a committee

An Executive Committee consisting of ten (10) members shall conduct the business of the Corporation, including program proposal approvals, between meetings of the full Board of Directors. The Executive Committee shall consist of the Chair, Secretary/Treasurer, four (4) state representatives (Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia, Virginia/North Carolina), an at-large representative, a representative of the Deans' Council, a designated member of the Advisory Council (ex-officio without vote) and the President (ex officio with vote). The Chair of the Board of Directors shall also serve as Chair of the Executive Committee. The association structure consists of member institutions and it is governed by a Board of Directors ("Board") constituted of the Presidents of each of those institutions. There shall be the administrative staff, an Executive Committee, a Deans' Council, a Nominating Committee, a Finance Committee, and other committees and task forces appointed as necessary to carry out the business of the Corporation. The work of the Corporation is accomplished largely through its committees (standing and ad hoc). It may operate certain programs directly, or it may facilitate the creation of programs which will function among several member colleges.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	ACA's conflict of interest policy is outlined in its employee manual and its new board member package. Each employee and board member are provided a copy of these documents. Thereafter, employees and board members are encouraged to report any potential conflicts that they may be involved in or that they are aware of. Any director, officer, or key employee who has an interest in a contract or other transaction presented to the Board of Directors or a committee thereof for authorization, approval, or ratification shall make a prompt and full disclosure of his or her interest to the Board of Directors or committee prior to its acting on such contract or transaction. Such disclosure shall include any relevant and material facts known to such person about the contract or transaction, which might reasonably be construed to be adverse to the Corporation's interest. The body to which such disclosure is made shall thereupon determine, by a vote of two-thirds of the votes entitled to vote, whether the disclosure shows that a conflict of interest exists or can reasonably be construed to exist. If a conflict is deemed to exist, such person shall not vote on, nor use his other personal influence on, nor participate (other than to present factual information or to respond to questions), in the discussion or deliberations with respect to such contract or transaction. Such person may be counted in determining whether a quorum is present but may not be counted when the Board of Directors or a committee takes action on the transaction. The minutes of the meeting shall reflect the disclosure made, the vote thereon, the abstention from voting and participation, and whether a quorum was present.
