| Part X, Line 2                        | The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the consolidated financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in expenses in the accompanying consolidated statements of activities. As of June 30, 2015 and 2014, the University had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the consolidated financial statements. The University files information tax returns in the U S and various states. The University is generally no longer subject to U S federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2011. |

| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a The President's compensation is reviewed by the Finance Committee of the Board of Trustees. Comparative data from similar colleges and universities is obtained annually to assist in determining compensation levels. This process is documented in the board minutes upon compensation approval. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15b While no formal comparative data is used, from professional knowledge, management is aware salaries for officers and key employees are lower compared to similar executives in higher education. Top management and key employees' compensation is determined by the Finance Committee of the Board of Trustees. This process is documented in the board minutes upon compensation approval. |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19  | Point University makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available upon request.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Form 990, Part XII, Line 2c            | The organization has a committee that assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit of its financial statements and selection of its independent accountant.
