| 1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year. |     |    |
| 2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |     |    |

| SCHEDULE D, PART X, LINE 2 - FIN 48 (ASC 740) Footnote | The University Athletic Association is generally exempt from Federal income taxes under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. However, the Association is subject to income tax on unrelated business income. Deferred income taxes arise from temporary differences resulting from income and expense items reported for financial reporting and tax purposes in different periods. Deferred taxes are classified as current or noncurrent, depending on the classification of the assets and liabilities to which they relate. Deferred taxes arising from temporary differences that are not related to an asset or liability are classified as current or noncurrent depending on the periods in which the temporary differences are expected to reverse. The principal sources of temporary differences at June 30, 2015 and June 30, 2014, relate to differences in the timing of revenue recognition for financial reporting and tax purposes on certain sponsorship agreements. The University Athletic Association files tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and in the state of Florida. Management of the Association considers the likelihood of changes by taxing authorities in its filed income tax returns and recognizes a liability for or discloses potential significant changes that management believes are more likely than not to occur upon examination by tax authorities, including changes to the Association's status as a not-for-profit entity. Management believes the Association met the requirements to maintain its tax-exempt status and has not identified any uncertain tax positions subject to the unrelated business income tax that require recognition or disclosure in the accompanying financial statements. The Association's income tax returns for the past three years are subject to examination by tax authorities, and may change upon examination. |

Part VI, Section B,
Question 11B

The University Athletic Association (UAA) Audit Committee members consist of seven voting Directors and is assigned the Form 990 annual review and approval process on behalf of the Board of Directors. A draft of the 2014 Form 990 was distributed and an overview of this draft was presented by management and an independent tax professional to the Audit Committee prior to finalization of the return. The Audit Committee members were provided the opportunity to comment, ask questions and give feedback with respect to the draft. A copy of the finalized return was provided to the complete board prior to filing.

| Conflict of Interest Policy - Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Question 12c | The UAA has established a Conflict of Interest policy committed to the belief that sound business practices start with an absolute commitment from each employee to act ethically in carrying out the Organization's business and to comply with the laws and regulations that impact its business. UAA employees must avoid participating in activities that create or appear to create a conflict of interest specifically identified in its policy in the following areas: financial interest, outside employment, acceptance of gifts, gratuities, business courtesies, travel, lodging and entertainment, misuse of resources or assets, personal gain using undue influence, direct dealings with vendors, and use of confidential information. The Organization's policy requires certain individuals to disclose participation in activities or circumstances that may present a conflict of interest or if at any time such individual becomes aware of circumstances that may present a conflict of interest. These disclosures are reviewed by the Audit Committee, as necessary. |

| Compensation Review - Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Question 15a and 15b | The UAA Board of Directors shall be responsible for establishing compensation practices which are reasonable and do not violate the private inurement prohibition. The practices and processes are designed to avoid any claim for intermediate sanctions and to satisfy the requirements to obtain the rebuttable presumption. The Board periodically reviews outside independent data to establish the compensation for the Director of Athletics (CEO), the Head Football Coach and Head Men's Basketball Coach (key employees). |
