Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Form 990 is prepared by an independent CPA firm and reviewed by the Executive Director and the Director of Business and Operations. The 990 is then submitted to the board of directors for their review and approval. After approval by the board, the president of the board signs the 990 for filing with the IRS.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Although our policy states that CHCS does not transact business with board members, each board member reviews and completes a Conflict of Interest Policy statement annually. The Director of Business and Operations, through daily financial review, monitors transactions for conflict of interests.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	The Executive Director's performance and compensation is reviewed and voted on annually by the board of directors. The board believes the compensation for the Executive Director is substantially below comparable positions with other organizations this size, therefore, comparability data was researched. This process is documented in the board minutes.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The organization makes its governing documents, the public inspection copy of the Form 990, and financial statements available to the public upon request.
Form 990, Part XI, line 9	Unrealized gain on pension liability 122,000. Unrealized loss on value of gift annuity - 5,230.
Form 990, Page 12, Part XII, Line 2C	The audited financial statements are presented to the general board of directors, several members of the board are selected to ask questions and review the audit through a conference call with the auditors. These members then report back to the general board of directors. This process has not changed from prior years.
