Conflict of Interest Policy	PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 12C Members of the Board of Trustees are appointed to serve Westminster School and its constituencies. The individuals who accept this position are expected to carry out their duties in a manner which inspires and assures the confidence of the School and the broader community. The Trustees shall exercise the utmost good faith in all transactions touching upon their duties to the School and its property. In their dealings with and on behalf of the School, they are held to a strict rule of honest and fair dealings between themselves and the School. They shall not use their positions as Trustees, or knowledge gained therefrom, so that a conflict might arise between the School's interest and that of any individual Trustee. A conflict of interest arises when a Trustee (1)(a) is authorized to or (b) participates in the decision to authorize others to enter a business transaction on behalf of the School, which business transactions may directly or indirectly materially benefit that Trustee or any related or affiliated person or entity, or (2) is involved in any activity which could adversely affect his or her judgment with respect to the business of the School. It is understood that many trustees are also members of Westminster Presbyterian Church and/or parents/grandparents of students at Westminster School and these are not considered to be material conflicts. Each potential conflict of interest shall be reported in writing to the Board of Trustees before any action affecting the particular matter is taken and the Board shall determine how to proceed. Each member of the Board of Trustees shall annually receive a copy of the Conflict of Interest Statement and shall return a signed copy to the Executive Committee of the Board.

Return Reference	Explanation
Business or Professional Services	Part VI, Section A, Line 2 A number of trustees, or their spouses, are employed at companies that offer insurance, real estate, or financial services, or are professionals who offer services, and may therefore have on-going or occasional business or professional service relationships with other trustees. These business or professional service relationships are unrelated to service on the organization's Board of Trustees. The existence or possibility of such relationships does not create any issues or conflicts impacting the operations of the organization.
