Message about your CD: The prices shown for Certificates of Deposit (CDs) are generally estimates based upon matrix or model pricing methodology provided by an independent third-party. CDs may be priced at face value for up to seven calendar days from date of issue if estimated prices have not been received from the third-party pricing vendor If no price is shown, an estimated market value was not available on the day your statement was generated. The prices shown for CDs may not represent the actual price you would receive if sold prior to maturity If you hold your CD until maturity, you will receive the CD's face value and all accrued unpaid interest, assuming no issuer default.

All positions held in cash account unless indicated otherwise.

B - See Additional Information and Endnotes for important information about the adjusted cost basis information provided.

Total Cost Basis does not include the cost basis on core, money market or other positions where cost basis is unknown or not applicable.

AI (Accrued Interest) - Presented for domestic fixed income securities and represents interest accumulated since the last coupon date, but not yet paid by the issuer or received by NFS. AI is calculated for the following securities: fixed rate bonds and Certificates of Deposit (CDs). There is no guarantee that AI will be paid by the issuer. AI for treasury and GNMA securities, however, is backed by the full faith and credit of the United States Government AI totals represent accruals for only those securities with listed AI in the Holdings section of this statement Please refer to the Help/Glossary section of Fidelity com for additional information.

Estimated Annual Income (EAI) & Estimated Yield (EY) - EAI is an estimate of annual income for a specific security position over the next rolling 12 months EY is calculated by dividing the current EAI for a security position by its statement closing date market value. EY reflects only the income generated by an investment, it does not reflect changes in its price, which may fluctuate. For certain types of securities, EAI and EY could include the return of principal or capital gains which would render them overstated. EAI and EY are estimates provided for informational purposes only and should not be relied on for making investment, trading, or tax decisions. There is no guarantee that your investments will actually generate the EAI or EY presented. Actual income and yield might be higher or lower EAI and EY should not be confused with a security's 30-day Yield or 7-day Yield, if provided, as such yield quotations reflect the actual historical performance of a security. For additional information, including calculation details, refer to the "Additional Information and Endnotes" section at the end of your statement.

Wakerly Family Foundation 2014 Form 990PF

Statements #5 + #6 Blank

Wakerly Family Foundation

a private charitable foundation
Kate Wakerly (1948-2004), Founding President

Statement of Purpose

The Wakerly Family Foundation (WFF), a private foundation, provides financial assistance to qualified public charitable organizations, with a focus on the areas of social services, education, and economic development. We support organizations that receive the majority of their funding from private (non-governmental) sources. WFF does not consider unsolicited proposals from new organizations (ones who have not received grants from us before). Most grants are made in local areas where one or more WFF board members can monitor needs and outcomes.

WFF's board of directors is responsible for identifying charitable giving opportunities that are consistent with the foundation's purpose, and is especially interested in funding projects and programs which:

- benefit private education, and assist faculty at private schools, including retired faculty who are members of religious orders. Programs which enhance education in English, math, and science are also encouraged.
- support children in at-risk or economically disadvantaged households.
- help to provide additional low-income and very-low-income housing, especially owner-occupied housing.
- foster job skills training, especially for people who are unemployed or under-employed, with a goal of assisting workers toward full economic self-sufficiency. A particular focus is households that have experienced the loss of a parent and may be struggling financially.
- create new areas of employment through entrepreneurship. Projects that create new jobs for people who have difficulty finding traditional types of employment are encouraged.
- assist immigrants to the U.S. in the areas of education, employment, and housing.
- assist low-income populations with self-help projects including small, starter businesses which will employ members of those populations in their own communities.
- provide direct assistance or emergency aid to an economically disadvantaged population, with particular interest in programs that provide or facilitate access to quality, affordable health care for working, low-income individuals and families.
- promote individual responsibility and economic freedom.

WFF is especially interested in supporting relativèly small, low-overhead organizations and programs that can obtain high leverage using WFF's grants.

Organizations and entities that are not eligible or are not normally considered for funding by WFF include:

- any organization which is not a 501(c)3 public charity
- government agencies, or entities receiving the majority of their support from government sources at the local, state, or federal level (including public schools)
- political parties and lobbying organizations

Grants available and funding cycle

Any WFF board member may invite a qualified organization to request a grant of up to $10,000. Generally, grants will range from $1,000 to $10,000 and will be given for one year. Proposals will be reviewed by one or more board members, depending on the request size. Selected applicants may also request funding beyond $10,000 for special projects, but these will require additional consideration and review by WFF's full board of directors. WFF's total annual grant-making budget is on the order of $300,000.

New organizations will be asked to apply for grants at various times throughout the year, and existing ones may make a request at any time. WFF's fiscal year runs from July 1 to June 30.

If you are a new organization and have been asked to apply for funding, please submit a brief proposal (1 to 2 pages is fine) describing your organization and the program or project for which funding is requested. Your proposal should address the following points as applicable:

- What is the program for which you are seeking support?
- What community needs will be served by this program? What challenges will this program help participants overcome?
- Who are the target populations (demographic, geographic) that will be served?
- What other organizations or agencies are serving your target population, and how will your project differ from the services currently offered? How will your organization work together with other entities for the benefit of your clients?
- What are the expected outcomes of your project or program? How and how often will you evaluate the effectiveness of your program?
- What are the expected consequences if your project/program is not implemented?
- What is the total cost of your project or program, and for what portion of that total are you requesting WFF support?
- You may also be asked to include one or more of the following: certification of your organization's status under IRS Section 501(c)3 (if not available at guidestar.org); names and affiliations of your board members; projected budget for the year for which you are seeking funding; your program ratio (percentage of funds that go directly to your cause); an overview of your financial statements including major sources and uses of funds.

After receiving your proposal and any supplemental materials required, one or more WFF board members will determine whether your project or program can receive funding in the current fiscal year. At that time, your proposal may be funded immediately, or additional information and/or a site visit may be requested. If your proposal is selected for funding or further consideration, a board member will generally respond within one month.

Solicited proposals can be submitted only by email and should be directed to:

John Wakerly, President, Wakerly Family Foundation
