Form 990 (2014)

Part IIISTatement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1Briefly describe the organization’s mission

To enrich the lives of teenage girls with an enduring educational experience focusing on overseas exploration, academic challenges, expanded outdoor skills, and a deeper engagement with the world

2Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4Describe the organization’s program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a(Code)(Expenses $297,101including grants of $(Revenue $342,336)

The Traveling School offers teenage girls the opportunity to explore the world and themselves through academic, physical, and cultural challenges. This kind of transformative experience deepens ones awareness of the world, and cultivates both leadership skills and personal confidence, leading to intelligent, compassionate, and empowered women prepared to become leaders on any stage. The Traveling School inspires personal growth that in turn creates broader change in our local and global communities through the work these young women pursue. During our fall semester, 16 high school girls ages 15-18 and their four teachers explore southern Africa for 15 weeks. Rigorous experiential courses include Math, History, Environmental Science, English, Physical Education, and Global Studies. Custom-designed curriculum is based on the region of travel. Zambia, Botswana, Namibia, and South Africa. Academics focus on the impact of Apartheid on modern South Africa, wildlife biology, the implications of mining and contemporary issues of the region. As well, students engage in local communities, participate in community service, develop strong outdoor skills and build self-confidence and leadership skills.

4b(Code)(Expenses $291,708including grants of $(Revenue $318,633)

Our spring semester travels to South America. Traveling School students immerse in Spanish language study throughout the semester, building conversational skills and confidence. Standards-based courses designed to examine the region include Math, History, Environmental Science, English, Physical Education, and Global Studies. Rigorous regional academics follow the course itinerary through Ecuador, the Galapagos Islands, Peru, and Bolivia with intensive focus on the Amazon rain forest, Machu Picchu and the Inca civilization, and contemporary politics. As well, students engage in local communities, participate in community service, develop strong outdoor skills and build self-confidence and leadership skills.

Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.
