Wyoming Medical Center
Wyoming Medical Center	Part V, Section B, Line 7d The CHNA is available at wyomingmedicalcenter.org/index.php/about/category/community-benefit
Wyoming Medical Center	Part V, Section B, Line 11 Wyoming Medical Center (WMC) has made significant progress on the goal to foster better communication between healthcare providers and agencies to improve overall health. It hired and trained its transition coaches who are now working to assist patients in their transition from the hospital to home, skilled nursing care, home health or hospice. Wyoming Medical Center's CEO also holds quarterly focus groups with a randomly selected group of patients each quarter, and the most recent group met in June 2015. WMC's electronic health record is fully implemented and the public portal has opened, where patients can see some of their records with secure access online. This access will be expanded over the next several years. Ongoing work will continue to ensure accurate dissemination of data to all providers. The state of Wyoming's health insurance exchange has lost its funding, and WMC is therefore no longer participating in the effort to transmit data to the exchange. Efforts continue to encourage providers across the state to access health records electronically through Cerner. In response to the Affordable Care Act, Wyoming Medical Center has committed itself to educating the community on options for accessing health insurance. In addition to financial counselors being available, WMC has become a Certified Application Counselor Organization for the Health Insurance Marketplace and has held several community talks, most recently in January 2015, to help people navigate the complicated process. Wyoming Medical Center will continue to offer these services, especially during open enrollment. Wyoming Medical Center's efforts to promote health education continue. Several physicians (employed and from other practices in partnership with WMC) and WMC staff have committed to speaking engagements across Natrona County on subjects ranging from a heart healthy diet to the importance of safety. Continued advertisement of various support groups and monthly screenings is seen in various media, including newspaper, social media, radio and more. Wyoming Medical Center's news site, The Pulse, launched in August 2013 and features information on various health topics and events. The Pulse had more than 123,000 unique visitors in FY 2015. There are various needs addressed in the community health needs assessment that are being addressed in partnership with other community partnerships. Wyoming Medical Center has worked closely with Casper Medical Imaging to launch a low-dose lung cancer screening program for longtime smokers in 2012 and that program continues. Safe Communities, a federal grant-funded program run at WMC, works with various agencies including local police to address motor-vehicle related issues, specifically drunken driving, seat belt use (including car seats) and texting and driving. The Wyoming Medical Center-run Safe Kids program also raises funds to offer car seats to those who cannot afford them as well as car seat checks by registered technicians. Wyoming Medical Center's Foundation is working on plans and funding for a Wellness Center to be housed in the new McMurry West Tower, which will offer another option for indoor exercise. It is expected to open in 2016. A health resource directory for the Senior Action Network is completed and was updated in 2013. Extended hours in WMC's outpatient clinics are now offered, with appointments between 7 a.m. and 6 p.m.
Wyoming Medical Center	Part V, Section B, Line 13h In addition to income level and Medicaid/Medicare, WMC will bypass the application process if the patient already qualifies for other county or state programs, such as the Food Stamp program.
Wyoming Medical Center	Part V, Section B, Line 16i In addition to the full policy being provided on the website and available upon request, WMC provides a brochure at the time of admissions with financial options in the patient's information packet and a summary is provided in the billing invoices. A financial service counselor is also available to explain the financial assistance program.
Wyoming Medical Center	Part V, Section B, Line 24 All individuals eligible under the Medical Center financial assistance policy are provided a discount for emergency and other medically necessary care. The financial assistance policy does not apply to elective procedures. Therefore, FAP-eligible patients without insurance may be charged gross charges on elective procedures.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Wyoming Medical Center's conflict of interest policy applies to directors, the principal officer and any member of a committee with board-delegated powers. WMC officers, directors, and key employees will also follow the Corporate Compliance Conflict of Interest Policy. Each individual governed by the policy annually signs a conflict of interest statement. Periodic reviews are conducted to ensure that WMC operates in a manner consistent with its charitable purposes and that it does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its status as an organization exempt from federal income tax in connection with any actual or possible conflicts of interest. Members of the committees with board delegated powers consider the proposed transaction or arrangement after disclosure of the financial interest, all material facts and after discussion with the interested person. The individual with the conflict leaves the board or committee meeting while the final determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members decide if a conflict of interest exists. A voting member of the board or any committee, who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from WMC, is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation. Physician board members are precluded from voting on any compensation matters involving other physicians.

The compensation of the other officers is under the authority of the President & CEO, who is accountable to the Board of Directors.
