| Schedule D, Part X, Line 2    | JFS is classified as a public charity under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and is therefore exempt from federal and state income taxes As a public charity, contributions to JFS are deductible by the donor JFS assesses the likelihood of the financial statement effect of a tax position that should be recognized when it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination by a taxing authority based on the technical merits of the tax position, circumstances, and information available as of the reporting date Management does not believe that there are any tax positions that would result in an asset or liability for taxes being recognized in the financial statements JFS policy is to recognize interest and penalties accrued on any unrecognized tax positions as a component of income tax expense As of June 30, 2015 and 2014, JFS did not have any accrued interest or penalties associated with any unrecognized tax positions, nor was there any interest expense or penalties recognized during the years ended June 30, 2015 and 2014 There are open statutes of limitations for taxing authorities to audit JFSs tax returns for 2012 through the current period                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
