Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

The organization's primary exempt purpose is to conduct fund raising throughout the United States for gifts of illiquid properties, including real properties, tangible and intangible properties; then sell the illiquid properties and distribute the net proceeds to Section 501(c)(3) organizations that are charitable, including the University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky and other charitable organizations associated with the University of Kentucky.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

The largest program service has been fundraising with potential donors that involve gifts of real property. The organization received its first gift of real property during the 2014 fiscal year. The organization has established procedures to manage and administer real property gifts until a real property can be sold. The organization also has several other donors that may have real properties that may be gifted to the organization in the near future.

The University of Kentucky benefitted from the first gift of real property. The real property was sold by the organization in fiscal year 2015 and the net proceeds from the sale were gifted to the University of Kentucky. The University of Kentucky, along with students and faculty, benefitted from the real property gifted to the organization.

The organization is still in the early stages of working with potential donors and the University of Kentucky's Office of Philanthropy to educate potential donors of the organization's existence and the organization's procedures to receive unusual types of non-liquid gifts.
