Part IV, Line 2b Explanation of escrow account liability	The Organization is an agent for the Social Security Administration in connection with its protective payee program. The program distributes cash to the Organization which, in turn, agrees to use the assets on behalf of the beneficiary or to distribute the funds to the beneficiary. The Organization is also the trustee for funds held for the benefit of certain of its consumers, including members of the Evergreen Club. The Organization maintains a checking account on behalf of these beneficiaries, and has elected to include the amount and the corresponding liability in the Statements of Financial Position in order to reflect its fiduciary responsibility for these funds.
Part X FIN48 Footnote	Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America provide guidance related to uncertainties in income taxes recognized in an enterprise's financial statements and provides guidance on financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The Organization has evaluated state, federal and foreign tax positions taken in the current year, for which the statute of limitations is still open, and determined that it is more-likely-than-not that each position would be sustained upon examination. Accordingly, management has determined that it does not have any unrecognized tax liabilities or benefits for the year ended June 30, 2015 that need to be recognized in the financial statements.
