Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part I, Line 2	Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require the College's management to evaluate tax positions taken by the College and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the College has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. Management has analyzed tax positions taken by the College and has concluded that as of June 30, 2014, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The College is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The College's management believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2010.
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	Endowment funds are used for Instruction Support, Academic Support, Student Services, Institutional Support, Plant Support, Research and Scholarships - as directed by donors and by Board of Trustees if endowments are not restricted.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	Before filing of the college's tax return, the return (form 990) and supplemental schedules and information, are forwarded to the Audit Committee for review, comments, and approval, including schedule B. After the approval and before the return is filed, a copy is posted to the Trustee's website to be available for review by each member of the Board of Trustees, excluding schedule B. The information that is included in and reported on in schedule B is provided to the full Board of Trustees confidentially at its regular meetings. After the return is posted to the full Trustee's website, ample time is allowed for comments and changes, if any, prior to the extended due date of the return. Any material changes in the tax return or any proposed changes to the governance section would require an additional approval by the Audit Committee.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 2d	Book to tax adjustments include eliminating accrued contributions receivable, recording rent revenue net of expense and recording fundraising revenue net of expense.
Schedule D, Part XII, Line 2d	Book to tax adjustment, change in value of split interest agreements moved from other changes to expense.
Schedule D, Part XII, Line 4b	Book to tax adjustment, change in value of split interest agreements moved from other changes to expense.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule E, Part I, Line 3	The college customarily draws a substantial percentage of students from a large geographic section of the US and worldwide, and enrolls students of racial minority groups in meaningful numbers. The college follows a racially nondiscriminatory policy as to all students, which is widely published in the literature sent to students and prospective students. Accordingly, under Sec. 403(2)(b), the college complies with the publicity requirement by fulfilling the Sec. 402 procedures pertaining to nondiscriminatory policy statements.
Schedule E, Part I, Line 6	The college receives student financial assistance from the Department of Education and has an annual independent audit in accordance with OMB Circular A-133. That report and the accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards includes all federal grants received by the college, which have activity during the fiscal year. The schedule is prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and in accordance with OMB Circular A-133.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	Linfield College provides on campus housing for the President. He is required to live there as a condition of his employment and for the convenience of the employer. The college pays club dues to Michelbook Country Club, the University Club and the Arlington Club as part of the President's role (e.g., fundraising, external relations, meeting space, etc.). The college occasionally pays travel costs for the president's spouse if she is attending alumni gatherings or other events where it benefits the college to have the president and his wife present.
