Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	United Way is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Exemptions from the State of Oregon corporation excise tax are provided by Oregon Revised Statutes 317.080. In any year in which United Way has gross receipts from unrelated business activities of $1,000 or more, it must file form 990-T with the Internal Revenue Service and pay tax on such income, less any related deductions. There was no such income for the years ending June 30, 2015 or 2014. United Way follows accounting standards generally accepted in the United States of America related to the recognition of uncertain tax positions. These standards provide detailed guidance for financial statement recognition, measurement, and disclosure of uncertain tax positions. These standards require an entity to recognize the financial statement impact of a tax position when it is more likely than not that the position would not be sustained if examined by a taxing authority. Management has determined that United Way had no uncertain tax positions as of June 30, 2015 or 2014. United Way files informational and income tax returns in the United States, state and local jurisdictions. With few exceptions, United Way is no longer subject to U.S. Federal, state or local tax examination by tax authorities for years before 2011.
