	Within the Oregon legislative system, NPCOs focus is on decreasing health disparities among women, particularly low income women and women of color. We have successfully supported and worked to pass legislation around culturally competent health care, prenatal care for all women, using community health workers and data collection by race/ethnicity to better inform existing health disparities and develop policies to address those disparities. Additionally, NPCO has been a strong advocate for health care exchange policies inclusion of a full range of reproductive health options and we have worked to increase women's awareness of the benefits of health care reform and encourage enrollment. Our organization educates our constituency regarding threats to choice in Oregon. We have partnered with Raising Women's voices in support of health care policies which seek to increase women's access to reproductive health care options rather than limit them. Grassroots advocacy is at the heart of our work. Our constituency includes 299 active volunteers working with us to expand and protect choice in Oregon. We engage our supporters in their communities, this year, NPCO participated in 56 different community events throughout the Portland Metro area. We communicate with our 6,119 activists on a weekly basis. Through an expansion of our social media program, we have provided weekly public education on reproductive health care to more than 4,216 Facebook followers and have become a leading pro-choice voice on Pinterest. NPCO actively tracks the engagement our Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 28 Statement of Program Service Accomplishments Facebook posts receive, and the open rates of the emails we send out. We have seen a 5% increase in Facebook followers and a 10% increase in Twitter followers in the last six months. Based on the impact of the post or newsletter, we tailor each to be more effective and engaging moving forward.
