Form 990, Part VI, Line 6 - Explanation of Classes of Members or Shareholder

There shall be one class of membership in the corporation. Members are: a) parents or legal guardians of children currently and properly enrolled in The Berkeley School; b) full-time employees of The Berkeley School; c) members of the board of trustees. For the purposes of these bylaws, "full-time" shall mean employees working at least 30 hours per week or who work enough hours to qualify for health insurance benefits under current corporation policy, whichever is less. Any person who satisfies any of the categories of membership shall be a member as long as the person satisfies any one category. There shall be a single class of members regardless of any contractual relationship a member may have with the corporation, including but not limited to any contract that may create different rights or liabilities among members with respect to the corporation. Any dispute regarding a person's admission as member, or with respect to the person's rights or obligations as a member, shall be resolved by a majority vote of the board of trustees after notice to and hearing of all interested persons.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 7a - How Members or Shareholders Elect Governing Body

The members are empowered to amend any of the articles in these by-laws, elect trustees or remove trustees in accordance with the laws of the State of California, by vote of a majority of the members.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 7b - Decisions of Governing Body Approval by Members or Shareholders

The members are empowered to amend any of the articles in these by-laws, elect trustees or remove trustees in accordance with the laws of the State of California, by vote of a majority of the members. Resolutions approved by a majority of the members shall prevail over resolutions adopted by the Board of Trustees in the event of a conflict between them. All members must be notified in writing by U.S. Mail at least seven (7) days in advance of any vote.
