Huckleberry Teen Health Program ("HTHP") is the primary provider of health access, youth development and other support services for underserved youth in Marin County. Services include weekly teen clinics in San Rafael and Novato, health workshops offered in schools and community sites, individual and family counseling, and case management. The agency was recently selected by the County to provide prevention counseling to youth referred by the Marin County Juvenile Drug Court. Many of HTHP's 2,500 clients served annually are from the Canal District of San Rafael. During the year covered, 461 clients were served in our health clinic, and 2,136 young people participated in health education workshops. 289 clients received substance abuse or other mental health services. Huckleberry Youth Health Center is the first full-time, community-based health center dedicated exclusively to teens and young adults in San Francisco. It is also the primary provider of health education workshops in San Francisco schools and after-school sites. Medical services, including primary and reproductive health care, are provided by caring peers and adults to over 5,000 youth annually. During the year covered, 1,178 clients were served in our health clinic, and 3,110 young people participated in health education workshops. 245 clients received substance abuse or other mental health services.

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	HYP is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by HYP in their federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. HYP's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.
