Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

Wu Yee creates opportunities for children to be healthy, for families to thrive, and for communities to be strong by providing direct childcare services through our Early Head Start and Head Start programs to 595 funded slots for children of low-income families

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

Yes

No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

Yes

No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 7,904,702 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 7,617)

Wu Yee's Child Development program supports young children to reach their potential by offering full-day and year-round high-quality subsidized child care services to children aged 0-5. Our target population is low-income and recent immigrant families who are working in job training or in school and need child care. The program is designed to provide comprehensive child care services, to integrate parent involvement, education, physical health, mental health, nutrition, special needs and social services to the families that Wu Yee serves. Wu Yee served 455 children in thirteen child development centers located throughout the city of San Francisco, 30 children through the FCC program, and 110 home-based

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 4,801,023 including grants of $ 3,774,925) (Revenue $)

Wu Yee's Child Care Subsidies Program assists eligible low-income families in San Francisco with child care case management, referrals and payments to child care providers. This is an essential program allowing parents to work or attend vocational trainings while their children are enrolled in a high quality child care program. Wu Yee's Child Care Subsidies Program served 655 children through the City Fund program.

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 6,156,979 including grants of $ 1,440,833) (Revenue $)

Wu Yee's Child Care Provider Services Department provides training, technical assistance and stipends to child care providers in San Francisco in the various stages of their careers as well as improving quality through the Family Child Care Quality Network (FCCQN). Wu Yee's Provider Training programs partners with established family child care providers by training them on latest child development topics, so that they can maintain and achieve high quality practices in their field. The department also supports child care providers who are new to the childcare field by assisting them through the application process of opening their own child care business and by providing them with child development trainings. The program also conducts site visits to child care microenterprises ensuring that high-quality and nutritious meals are being served through the Child Care Provider Food Program. We support 130 family child care micro-enterprises by providing reimbursements for qualifying meals/snacks. Additionally, we provide yearly training to provide proper and safe food handling, USDA food pyramid guidelines, ensuring good physical activity, and age appropriate meals and food options for children.

Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Wu Yee is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by Wu Yee in their federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. Wu Yee's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.
