Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The endowment funds are to be used to support the programs of Junior Achievement of Arizona, Inc.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The Organization is exempt from federal and state income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 43-1201(4) of the Arizona Revised Statutes. However, the Organization remains subject to income taxes on any net income that is derived from a trade or business, regularly carried on and not in furtherance of the purpose for which it was granted exemption. The Organization utilizes the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") ASC 740-10, which prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement process for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. Based on the Organization's evaluation of the June 30, 2012 through 2014 income tax returns and positions expected to be taken in the June 30, 2015 income tax returns, the Organization did not engage in activities or take uncertain tax positions that would jeopardize its tax-exempt status, or generate unrelated business income, which would be subject to taxation. In the event the Organization is assessed interest or penalties by major tax jurisdictions, it will be included in the provision for income taxes in the combined financial statements. The Organization's federal and state income tax returns for the years ended June 30, 2012 through 2015 are subject to possible examination by the related taxing authorities. The taxing authorities generally have a period of three years after the returns were filed to examine them.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	The Organization has a Board of Trustees made up of independent members who decide how much to distribute to Junior Achievement of Arizona, Inc , the supported organization. Most funds support general programs, however some are designated for scholarship recipients. Additionally, there are restricted endowments, the earnings on which support general programs and a scholarship recipient. The general program support is transferred within the related accounts of this organization and its supported organization. The scholarship funds are also transferred to the supported organization where they wait until a recipient is selected. The recipient then submits a form detailing the school to which the funds should be sent, along with their identifying information. The supporting organization then disburses the funds in accordance with the recipient's instructions. Disbursements for general program support are monitored for receipt by Junior Achievement of Arizona, Inc. and used where needed to provide programs to K-12 students.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3	The State Board of Directors for the related organization has a compensation sub-committee that reviews all management and line staff compensation. Junior Achievement USA provides guidance in the form of salary survey compilations that are adjusted for geographic location, size of chapter, and experience of staff. Each position is reviewed for appropriateness within the salary range. Adjustments are made based on merit, cost of living and available resources of the organization. This process was last completed in October 2014 for the President, who is the Secretary for Foundation for Junior Achievement of Central Arizona, Inc, for the tax year of 2014.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	The related organization has a 457(b) retirement plan. This plan allows highly compensated employees to defer additional compensation on a pre-tax basis. The related organization's president, who is also this organization's secretary, is the only participant in this plan. The related organization does not contribute to this plan.
