PROJECT SUPPORT PROGRAM Our Project Support Program provides an organizational home in which activists can develop campaigns and programs with a minimum of bureaucracy. Since our founding in 1982, we have helped launch more than 150 campaigns. In fiscal year 2015, our Project Support Program supported 67 projects - providing financial management, administration, technical assistance, and training. Earth Island projects are located across the United States and the impact of their work reaches around the globe - advancing the causes of wildlife protection, environmental education and leadership development, clean energy and climate change, international and indigenous communities, environmental restoration and preservation, and sustainability and community resilience. During this period, the Project Support Program adopted five new sponsored projects and graduated one to independent 501(c)(3) status. Our support programs included webinar trainings, facilitated peer support calls, leadership coaching and a 2-day Summit designed to build capacity through skill development, networking, and collaboration. NEW LEADERS INITIATIVES New Leaders Initiative identifies, honors, supports and sustains outstanding environmental youth leaders in North America, and confers the premiere environmental youth prize, the Brower Youth Awards. Since 2000, the Brower Youth Award has recognized outstanding youth leaders who are making strides in the environmental movement. Each year, six young people based in North America are awarded the prize, joining a growing and diverse cadre of green leaders who are publicly recognized for their sustainable projects, innovative ideas and informed analyses. Year-round coaching is provided to award winners, and additional services are offered to a broader spectrum of youth environmental leaders through the Movement in Green strategic support and micro-grant program. A regular speaker series, Rooted and Rising, compliments the award and support programs by offering an intergenerational forum to discussion solutions to pressing environmental issues. RESTORATION INITIATIVES Our Restoration Initiatives small grants program provides support to community-based groups that are bringing back to life once polluted streams, wetlands, and open space. We believe that ecological restoration is a core task of twenty-first-century environmentalism. EARTH ISLAND JOURNAL Earth Island Journal is an award-winning quarterly magazine that goes beyond the daily headlines with investigative reporting, incisive commentary, and art. Earth Island Journal covers the environment from diverse angles, including wilderness protection, animals rights, energy and climate change, extractive industries, chemicals and pollution, food and farming, environmental injustice, and sustainable development. We explore environmental concerns from a wide range of perspectives from the personal to the political, the local to the global and produce the type of investigative reporting found in few other environmental magazines. We put our principles next to our reporting and we marshal the facts to make a passionate argument for defending Earth.
